Last will & Testament

Elias Spangler died.

I Elias Spangler, being old & feeble in body, but of sound mind, do make this my last will & Testament, hereby revoking all other wills heretofore made by me. viz- Whereas all my children by a former marriage have already and heretofore received their full share of my estate. I now will that my property consisting of a tract of land lying on Muddy Crabs in the 5th Civil District of Sullivan County, State of Tenn, adjoining the lands of N. T. Dulaney, A. H. Bullock et. als. containing 70 acres more or less be so divided between my two sons J. J. Spangler & Geo. E. Spangler, that Geo. E. Spangler shall have 40 acres of the farm & J. J. Spangler the remaining 30 acres; the said Geo. E. Spangler to have his share on the upper end of the farm & J. J. Spangler his on the lower end, and the said Geo. E. Spangler is to have all the personal property on hand at my death, or if my wife survives me at her death: in consideration of which the said George E. Spangler is to take care of me & my wife Ellen Spangler as long as we or either of us shall live, giving us such care and attention as is due from a child to a parent and the said Geo. E. Spangler is to pay all taxes on the property. But I reserve the right to live upon and control the land during my natural life; and give the same right and privilege to my wife Ellen if she survives me. But my son J. J. Spangler is privileged to live & remain upon the farm. Custom receiving a part thereof from year to year, paying me the usual rent ($\frac{1}{3}$ of the crop) therefor.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand this the 3rd day of July 1886.
