and to my beloved niece Fiza Dea Sullivan, in equal portions all my one fourth interest that I now & have in and to the house and lot I now live in, situated on west side of 8th Street, District, Sullivan County, Tenn., adjoining the lot of W. T. Sullivan on the North.

J. J. Wolford on the South and west, containing about one fourth of an acre of land. I also will & devise to the said all such interest as I may have in said property by descent from my mother, it being one sixth of one fourth vided.

2. I bequeath also to the said Nancy A. Sullivan, Ella A. Sullivan and Fiza Bell Sullivan all my interest in all the furniture in and about the house (which is a one third interest in same) and all other personal property I have of any character.
In devising & bequeathing my real and personal property to the above named sisters and niece I discriminate in their favor against my other sisters and my brother, because the said Nancy A. Ella A. & Fiza Bell have always, for many years lived and worked together and they have helped to accumulate what property we have.
In witness whereof I have hereunto signed my name this 14th day of July 1890.
