Will of William Thomas.

I William Thomas of Sullivan County and State of Tennessee do make and publish this my last will and Testament hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any other time made. First, I desire that all my personal effects and all my just debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any money that I may die possessed of. Secondly I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Elizabeth P. Thomas all my estate both real and personal of every kind whosoever to be of her entire and sole control during her natural life or while she remains my widow. Thirdly I desire that if any of the slaves should become unmanageable and not obey my said wife Elizabeth, that she sell them or hire them out so she may think best and apply the proceeds for the benefit of herself and her daughters. Fourthly I will and desire that at the death or marriage of my said wife all my personal and real property which may be on hand shall be equally divided between my two daughters Mary Mary Salome and Henrietta Thomas to be held by them to their sole and separate use separate and a part from any husband either of them my heirs &c. I hereby nominate and appoint my beloved wife Elizabeth P. Thomas my Executrix and do not require here to give bond or security. In witness whereof I do this my will set my hand and seal this 18th of Feb.

Will of James King Senior.

I James King senior residing at present in the town of Hudson and State of Virginia do make and publish this my last will and Testament. In the first place I direct that a line be drawn through the lower part of my plantation beginning at a Black oak corner to John C. King and my lands and on the line of William Bears and on the old road leading from Beaver creek down north to Poplarville and near where a few persons have been found running from Thomas N. Williams that crossing Beaver Creek to the foot of Knob and through the Knob, continuing the same course until it intersects my back line or the line of William W. Cream as the case may be, then the land that I own south and West of the above line and lying down the creek from said line, I give and bequeath to my three grand children - children of my son Cyrus King, to be held and owned by them jointly - and he used as they may think best - all standing in a selling it and dividing the proceeds by

James King Senior.

To James Hill one third interest, to Alice Owen one third interest and to John C. King one third interest. I must direct that an other line be run, beginning at the corner of John C. King's where it gives a turn east and that I purchased here some years ago and nearly equidistant between a white oak and black oak that stands some thirty or forty yards apart - running then North 1/2 West passing near a white oak near a large pond crossing Beaver Creek and continuing the same course until it strikes the town lot which I now hold or have sold off leading on the main street of Bristol. Now all the land lying between the two lines thus described (which include my former residence & my mill) I give and bequeath to my son in law John B. English.

James King Senior.
