Last Will and Testament

Martha Holten Reed.

Be it remembered That I Martha Holten do hereby make this my last will & testament hereby revoking all wills at any time heretofore made by me.

First I order and direct that all my just debts be paid in the convenient speed.

Second: I will & devise to Thomas Long whom I have brought up as one of my family fifty acres of the E. C. King tract of land and forty eight acres of the Scott tract of land both tracts adjoining each other & to begin at their white oak on the Scott & the County lines and running east to Masons corner. Thence with Masons line to Gibbons line back to the beginning corner so as to embrace fifty acres of the King tract and forty eight acres of the Scott land making the total ninety-eight acres lying in Carter co. Tenn. adjoining my other lands.

Third: I will & devise the remainder of my lands on which I now reside embracing the remainder of the E. C. King tract of land the Scott land & William Rutledge land containing in all over two hundred acres to my daughter Wiley Jane wife of George Malone for her own separate use free from the debts and obligations of her husband & to be held by her in fee simple forever.

Fourth: I also bequeath to my daughter Wiley Jane wife of George Malone all my household and kitchen furniture for her own separate use to be disposed of as she may think proper & free from the debts and contracts of her husband.

Fifth: It is my will & I so direct that after my death all my horses cattle sheep & hogs wagons & gearings will be sold as soon as practicable and the proceeds first applied in payment of my just debts and the remainder if any to be paid to my daughter Wiley Jane Malone for her own separate use free from the debts of her husband.

Sixth: Any other property not herein expressly or specifically described that I may now have or that I may hereafter acquire is hereby expressly devised to my said daughter Wiley Jane Malone free from the debts and contracts of her said husband. And I hereby appoint John Massingill as the executor of this my will. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 11th day of September 1884 in the presence of the subscribing witnesses.
