

real estate of which I may die seized and possessed, including the property where I now reside in the 16th Civil District of Sullivan County, Tennessee and all other real estate of which I may die seized and possessed, except that I hereby will to my daughter Jennie Jenkins, all the land I own on the North West side of the road leading from Weisler's line, to the line of Smalley and Headrick, except that she is not to have the Spring where we get water, but it and a sufficient right of way to it, is to go with my other real estate to my said two sons, Marshall Jones and Porter Jones who are to divide their said real estate between them as they may desire.

Lastly, I hereby appoint my said two sons, Marshall Jones and Porter Jones as my executors to this my last will and testament and excuse them from giving bond.

In witness and in testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand to this my last will and testament on this the 18th day of April, 1904.

A. J. Jones.

Signed and published in the presence of the undersigned witnesses, and we have subscribed our names as witnesses in the presence of each other and in the presence of the testator and at his request on this the 18th day of April 1904.

D. J. Stanfield,
Nancy Smith

The foregoing written instrument was proven in open court by the oaths of D. J. Stanfield and Nancy Smith, the subscribing witnesses thereto on this the 24th day of May, 1904, and thereupon said written instrument was declared, adjudged and decreed by the court to be the last will and testament of A. J. Jones, deceased, and ordered to be entered of record in the Book of Wills.

Teste,

D. J. Stanfield, Clerk,
By W. A. Hanger, d.c.

Last Will and Testament, 3

of ^{Probated May 1904}
David A. Hard, deceased.

In the Name of God, Amen, I, David A. Hard of the County of Sullivan and State of Tennessee, being of Sound mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life, do therefore make, ordain, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament: That is to say First after I will and bequeath to my beloved daughter Sarah Emmaline Hawk the one half interest that I own and have in the firm of Hawk & Hard and also all my one half interest in all accounts due said firm, with the understanding that she shall assume all debts against said firm if any, said one half interest estimated to be worth about seven hundred dollars. And also I will and bequeath to my beloved daughter Sarah Emmaline Hawk the sum of one thousand dollars in cash, aggregating in all the sum of seven hundred dollars.

Second, I will and bequeath to my beloved daughter Nancy Lavinia Smith the sum of seven hundred dollars in cash.

Third, I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Ellen A. Hard, during her natural life all of my real estate and all my personal property such as stock, household and kitchen furniture, farming implements &c. and all money notes except the thirty four hundred dollars, which I have will and bequeathed to my two daughters, Sarah Emmaline Hawk and Nancy Lavinia Smith.

Fourth, I will and bequeath that all my real estate and personal property money notes &c. that may be on hand at the death of my wife Ellen A. Hard, after paying all funeral expenses and debts if any shall be equally divided between my two daughters, Sarah Emmaline Hawk and Nancy Lavinia Smith.

Fifth, I hereby appoint A. D. Hawk as executor of this my last will and testament, and to qualify and serve without bond.

In witness whereof I have hereto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this the 1st day of December 1708

David A Hard (Seal)

Attest.

J. D. Rogers

A. H. Cross

The foregoing written instrument was shown in open Court by the oaths of J. D. Rogers and A. H. Cross the Subscribing witnesses thereto, on this the 24 day of May 1709, and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged, declared and decreed by the Court to be the last will and testament of David A Hard, deceased, and ordered to be entered of record in the Book of Wills.

Teste,

J. J. Kyle, Clerk.

By D. A. Rogers, D. C.

Last Will and Testament.

William P. Depew, deceased.

Probated June Term 1709

State of Tennessee, I William P. Depew of said County Sullivan County, and State, Realizing the uncertainty of Life and of Sound mind and memory do hereby publish this to be my last will and Testament hereby revoking all other Wills by me heretofore made.

First It is my will and I so direct that all my debts, funeral and burial expenses be paid by my Executor as soon after my death as possible said debts and expenses to be paid with or out of any personal property that I may have or come into the hands of my Executor after my death.

Second, It is my will and I so direct that my son R. P. Depew take and have all the lands or Real Estate that I may have own or possess at my death, provided that the said R. P. Depew pay to my other six children the following Sums and amounts to wit, To my son Isaac Depew $200⁰⁰ Two Hundred and fifty Dollars, To my Daughter Mary C. Short $200⁰⁰ Two Hundred Dollars, To my Daughter Sarah E. Richardson $200⁰⁰ Two Hundred Dollars, To my Daughter Jennie A. Barnes $200⁰⁰ Two Hundred Dollars, To my Daughter Ella S. Light $200⁰⁰ Two Hundred Dollars and to my Daughter Nannie E. DeVault $200⁰⁰ Two Hundred Dollars.

Third, It is my will and I so direct that my son R. P. Depew have three years after my death to pay to my other children the amounts above named.

Fourth It is my will and I so direct that all the personal property which I may have at my death is to be equally divided between my seven children or said property sold and the money which it may bring be equally divided between said seven children all of my debts and expenses is to be paid first out of my personal property.

Fifth I appoint my son Isaac Depew and my friend R. P. Depew to be the Executors of this will.

This November the 13-1897

William P. Depew.

The foregoing will was signed by the testator in our presence and we attested the same in his presence and at his request.

This November the 13-1897

Safagotta Wood

R. P. Depew.

The foregoing written instrument was shown in open Court by the oaths of Safagotta Wood and R. P. Depew Subscribing witnesses thereto, on this the 4 day of June 1709, and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged, declared and decreed by the Court to be the last will and testament of William P. Depew, deceased, and ordered to be entered of record in the Book of Wills.

Teste, J. J. Kyle, Clerk.

By D. A. Rogers, D. C.

Last Will and Testament

Probated

October Term 1709

Nanniah Johnson, deceased

State of Tennessee, In the name of God amen knowing Sullivan County, that it is appointed that all men and sex must die and being of sound and disposing mind deem it best before infirmity from age approaches to leave no little and dispose of my worldly affairs as it is best to provide against unforeseen events and contingencies that are common to all.

Therefore in view of my coming dissolution