December 29th 1892. I resorting from off of strips of paper to wit: Will Point Sullivan Co. Tenn. in December 7th 1892. I John Abard having seen and heard of good more than deed of earthly things am moved to thinking and rewriting my will against greed and in favor of Grace True Temperance in the midst of my own affluence under Gospel Grace and in which my loved Children of the 13 got 8175 days schooling. That they might read the Great will of God to man in the Paradiacal Garden gra to all of us redeemed unto raftered doors of us in reaftered Paradiacal Garden and raftered specials and as great as afforded Adam in his first days and no prohibition from enjoyment of no no all within uniting to the specials gra to clearing and to life and where in our father and mother gave our 13 Children Baptized in the three Christ names and afforded my redeemed among for my baptized in and therein 2 of the 13 have passed through the wilderness of many ways and triumphantly taken home unto redemption and thus have no need of earthly things. But the living children who in the wilderness have need on the earthly things of food and I expecting soon to pass on from earthly things as would me 70 years and I claim as stated to the 4 sons that my own support to me and I claim all my land on earth and I will that after I have passed away Emma M. have control of our house as much as she wants and things in the house and as much of garden and of fruit and of soils as she wants.

And I will my own and woodland 1020 acres more or less to my son, Lewis David Abard and William F. Abard and James H. Abard and David B. Abard and their heirs forever on the condition herein as is stated. First I will that they support and care for this mother all her day on earth in a Christian manner. Second I will that they pay Mary E. (Abard) 200 dollars yearly and my daughter Mary (Abard) 200 dollars yearly and John A. 200 dollars yearly. See minutes after my death and after wants to the others 2 years. And third I will that they the 4 sons 12 months after my death pay Sarah (Abard) 100 dollars yearly and her daughter Francis E. 50 dollars yearly. And after wants to the others 2 years. And fourth I will that the 4 sons 18 months after my death pay my daughter Sulannah E. Abard 100 dollars yearly.
