1st It is my will and desire that my Real Estate shall be placed in the hands of an Executor hereafter named in this will, and that said Executor shall see that my beloved wife Louella Berry shall have her support and maintenance from the proceeds of the farm in such a manner as to keep her in comfortable circumstances and that she shall retain the old homestead during her natural life. But if the proceeds of the farm is more than sufficient for her comfortable support, then my executor shall sell the residue and pay the amount on my indebtments and said Executor shall at all times real said farm to the best advantage. All the assets of my wife the Real Estate shall be by my executor sold to highest and best bidder for cash in hand or in such payments as to realize the best advantage, and from the proceeds of said sale shall first pay off all encumbrances on the real estate, and if there be a residue from real estate and personal property after my debts and funeral expenses are paid by my executor, then it is my desire that my son Wm. A. Berry, shall have the watch formerly belonging to Andrew Berry, and shall receive one half of the residue if he be living and the balance to be equally divided between my daughters Bessy Cox, Angelina Brown, Ellen Dell and Ada White.

It is further my desire that my wife Louisa Berry, shall have so much of the household & kitchen furniture as may be necessary for her ease and comfort. It is further my desire that my wife shall have the choice in one milk cow, also two hogs or the meat of two hogs, also so much of the poultry as she may desire and the balance of my personal property shall be sold at public sale and from the proceeds my executor shall pay off my burial expenses and other debts against me, and it is my desire that C. M. Cox, be and is hereby authorized to act as my executor.
