

Booker, one dollar ($1.00) to be paid by my three sons to whom I have devised my land.
Lastly, I give and bequeath unto each one of the nine children of Sarah Booker, deceased, who was the wife of Jas. Booker, one dollar - being nine dollars ($9.00) to said nine children. Said sum is to be paid them by my three sons to whom I have herein devised my real estate; and is not to be paid until after the expiration of two years after my death, and is not to bear any interest, until due. But my said three sons may pay same at any time before the expiration of said two years if they so desire. I direct that said sum of nine dollars ($9.00) be paid to said children of my daughter, Sarah Booker, deceased, direct without the appointment of a guardian to receive the same.

Lastly, I give and bequeath all the personal property of which I shall die seized and possessed unto my three sons, Wesley Booker, Alexander Booker and R. D. Booker. Lastly, It is my will that there shall be no executor or administrator of my estate. But if for any reason it should become necessary that there should be an executor, I do hereby nominate and appoint my said three sons, Wesley, Alexander and R. D. Booker, my executors, but they shall not be required to execute any bond.

In witness whereof, I do to this, my will, set my hand,

Last Will & Testament
 of
 Minerva Jane Bleins,

Probated July term, 1902.

In the name of God; Amen. I, Minerva Jane Bleins, of Sullivan County, Tennessee, being in full health of body, but of sound mind and disposing memory, aware of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made.

(1) I commend my spirit to my merciful Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier, and in the hope of a joyful resurrection, I commit my body in Christian burial to the earth, in the grave, ^{which} is at Pleasant Church, and direct that my executors, hereinafter named, pay all my funeral expenses.

(2) Being desirous of compensating my nephew, J. H. Stewart, and wife, Amanda C. Stewart, for the care and attention shown me and the support given me in my declining years, I will, devise and bequeath unto Amanda C. Stewart, wife of J. H. Stewart, all my property, real and personal, of every kind and character, wheresoever situated, absolutely.

(3) I hereby nominate and appoint J. H. Stewart executor of this my last will and testament, and ask that he be excused from executing bond.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand on this the 18 day of May, in the year of our Lord 1901.
