Last Will & Testament

of Christian Booker, dec'd. Testated June term, 1902
I, Christian Booker, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this, as my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all others by me at any time made.

First, I direct that my funeral expenses and all my just debts, be paid as soon after my death as possible. Secondly, I give and devise unto my three sons, Wesley Booker, Alexander Booker and R. B. Booker, all my real estate, consisting of the tract of land on which I now live, and which contains, by estimation, sixty (60) acres, more or less, and all my undivided interest in the land of which my brother, David Booker, died seized and possessed. All said land lies in the 5th Civil District of Sullivan County, Tennessee. It is my will that my said three sons shall take equal shares in, said real estate.

Thirdly, I give and bequeath unto my daughter, Evaline Grubb, fifty dollars ($50.00), to be paid by my three sons to whom I have devised my land under the second clause of this will, to wit: Wesley, Alexander and R. B. Booker. They shall not be required to pay said sum of fifty dollars ($50.00), to said Evaline Grubb until after the expiration of two years from the date of my death; and said sum is not to bear interest until due - that is until two years after my death. But my said three sons may, if they so desire, pay said bequest of fifty dollars at any time before the expiring of said two years.

Fourthly, I give and bequeath unto my son, Wm. C. Booker, twenty dollars ($20.00), to be paid to him by my said three sons, Wesley, Alexander, and R. B. Booker. But said $20.00 bequest shall not be due and payable nor bear interest until the expiration of two years after my death, unless my said three sons shall desire to pay same before due; in which case they shall have the right to do so.

Fifthly, I give and bequeath unto my son, David

Booker, one dollar ($1.00), to be paid by my then sons to whom I have devised my land. Sixthly, I give and bequeath unto each one of the nine children of Sarah Byers, dec'd, who was the wife of Jno. Byers, one dollar - being nine dollars ($9.00) to said nine children. Said sum is to be paid them by my then sons to whom I have herein devised my real estate; and is not to be paid until after the expiration of two years after my death, and is not to bear any interest until then. But my said then sons may pay same at any time before the expiration of said two years if they so desire. I direct that said sum of nine dollars ($9.00) be paid to said children of my daughter, Sarah Byers, dec'd, direct without the appointment of a guardian to receive the same.

Seventhly, I give and bequeath all the personal property of which I shall die seized and possessed unto my then sons Wesley, Booker, Alexander Booker and R. B. Booker. Lastly, it is my will that there shall be no executor or administrator of my estate. But if for any reason it should become necessary that there should be an executor, I do hereby nominate and appoint my said then sons, Wesley, Alexander and R. B. Booker, my executors, but they shall not be required to execute any bond.

In witness whereof, I do to this, my will, set my hand this second day of January, 1896.
