

of or that may just come into the hands of my executor.
 Secondly, I give and bequeath to John C. Dutton, Jr. who now resides with his father John C. Dutton, Sr. at my home in Bluff City, Tennessee, all the property of every kind and character, including all the personal, real and mixed property that I may own at my death including among all my other property, the house and lot I now own which is situated in Bluff City, Fannin County, Tennessee, where I now reside, and being the same lot purchased by me from Anna Weems for which she executed to me a deed dated the 15th day of April, 1867, which is registered in the Register's Office at Blountville Tennessee in Vol. 22 Pages 204 & 205. It being my intention that the said John C. Dutton, Jr. who is now only about seven years of age, shall have all the property of every kind and character that I may own at death. I do hereby nominate and appoint John C. Dutton, Jr. my executor. In testimony whereof I do to this my will set my hand this 16th day of November 1905.

Last Will and Testament

G. W. Boyd
 Probated April Term 1911.

I G. W. Boyd of the County of Sullivan and State of Tennessee, being of sound mind and memory and knowing the uncertainty of life, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all others that may have been, at any time, made by me.

1st I devise and direct that any debts I may owe including my funeral and burial expenses, shall be paid as soon after my decease as can be done.

2nd I hereby devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary C. Boyd all my property, both real and personal, during her life time, or as long as she remains my widow; at her death, my devise is that it shall all be sold, at public sale, to the highest bidder, and out of the money thus secured, I desire and direct that the sum of twelve hundred dollars, shall be set apart to and for the use of my daughter Eliza Frances Boyd, during her life time, but this sum or fund shall be put at interest, and that interest alone shall be used and applied annually for her use, benefit and maintenance; And my executor, as here in - after designated and appointed, is directed specially to see that this provision is carried into effect.

3rd I desire that all debts due me at the time of my death, shall be collected as far as possible, and my son G. M. Boyd, now being indebted to me in the sum of some thing over eight hundred dollars, for which I hold promissory notes on him; One for the sum of $345.00 with a credit of $50.00; and one other note, for the sum of $425.00; and feeling that the sum due me from him, amounts to a sum, equal to the share, to which he would be entitled out of my property at my wife's death; he is not to share in the distribution of my property among my other children: that is unless the notes I owed on him are paid by him either to me during my life time or to my executor after my death. My son Elmer S. Boyd is now indebted to me in the sum of $2,000 secured by promissory note, and deed of trust, and if he shall pay to me during my life time, or to my executor, after my death, said sum of $2,000, with the interest due thereon, then he is to share equally with my other children; if he does not, then the said sum of $2,000 with accrued interest is to be deducted from, or out of his share of my estate.

15th I think I have made my desires as to my property, and its disposition, sufficiently clear, that my children and all others, can easily understand and comprehend them. And I hereby nominate and appoint my son Rufus H. Boyd as my executor, but he shall not be required to give bonds. This the 13th day of November 1909
S. W. Boyd.

The foregoing will was signed by the testator in our presence, and we attested the same in his presence and at his request. This November 13th 1909.

P. H. White.

W. W. Casey.

The foregoing written instrument was proven in open Court by the oaths of P. H. White & W. W. Casey the subscribing witnesses to said written instrument, on this the 17th day of April 1911, and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged, declared and decreed by the Court to be the last Will and Testament of S. W. Boyd, deceased and ordered to be recorded in the Book of Wills.
