Last will and Testament

Moses Childress, deceased of Bristol Tennessee, dated March Term 1907.

I Moses Childress, considering the uncertainty of life, do make this my last will and Testament.

After my death, it is my desire and I so will, that Mary M. C. Boenig, of Sullivan County, Tennessee, wife of my deceased son, Mary, shall have one thousand dollars ($1000.00) and also all beds, bedding, chairs and table and other furniture which I may own at my death.

It is my desire and I so will, that Mary Ford, of Millwood, Ill. shall have three hundred ($300.00) dollars, Mary is married but I do not know her husband's name but her maiden name was Mary Ford.

It is my desire and I so will, that J. P. Childers of Sweetwater, Tennessee, shall have five hundred ($500.00) dollars, and that his mother, Mary Childers, of Sweetwater, Tennessee, shall have two hundred ($200.00) dollars.

It is my desire and I so will, that Evelyn Riggs, shall have three hundred ($300.00) dollars, and that Pearl Riggs, shall have two hundred ($200.00) dollars.

It is my desire and I so will, that Tommy Moore, of Bristol Tennessee, Son of Mary & Wm. Childers, shall have five hundred ($500.00) dollars.

It is my desire and I so will that Beauden Childers, shall have two hundred ($200.00) dollars, and to Chas. Childers, of Bristol $200.00.

It is my desire and I so will, that Mrs. Sarah Childers, of Bristol, Tennessee, shall have one hundred ($100.00) dollars.

It is my desire and I so will, that Edward Childers, of Bristol, Tennessee, shall have one hundred ($100.00) dollars.

After the payment of all costs and expenses of administration of every character and after the payment of the legacies hereinbefore set out, should there be anything left of my estate, it is my will that to the extent of $500.00 thereof, shall be paid to the Trustees of State Street Methodist Church, South, for the purpose of aiding in the construction of a parsonage for the pastor of said State Street Church, congregation and said sum shall be held by my executor until such time as the building of said passage is herein.

It is my desire and I so will, that if my estate of every character is not sufficient to pay said legacies in full, after the payment of all costs and expenses of administration, then said legacies shall be pro-rated distributing my estate to each in proportion to the amount above stated. The said Church trustees to receive no legacy, as before stated, unless all of the legacies to the individuals are paid in full.

It is my further desire that if my estate, after paying all costs of administration, &c. shall amount to more in the aggregate than the above legacies, including the said passage legacy, then any surplus shall be distributed among the legatees as before stated in proportion to the amounts given to each.

It is my further desire and I so direct that H. B. Peters be made my Executor to take full charge of my estate after my death and require the same to manage, selling my real estate at his discretion in the best way to realize the most therefrom. Power is hereby given him to rent said real estate and collect the rents until such time as he may think is best to sell same. Power is further given him where said property is sold to make conveyance thereof with covenants of special warranty to the purchaser or purchasers.

It is my further will that my Executor H. B. Peters shall have in addition to his expenses in administering said estate, including costs of bond &c. the sum of $150.00 for his services in discharging his duties as Executor.

This November 8th 1905.

Moses Chilchess.

Last Will and Testament

E. D. Harr, Deceased. Probated April Term 1907.

I, E. D. Harr, a citizen of Sullivan County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory do make, ordain and publish this as my last will and testament, hereby revoking all others heretofore made by me.

After all my just debts and funeral expenses have been paid by my Executor, hereinafter named, out of any moneys that I may have on hand at the time of my death, or that may come to his hands arising from the sale of any personal property that it may be necessary for him to sell in order to liquidate said debts and funeral expenses, it is my will and desire that my real and personal estate be disposed of as follows:

First I will devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, W. H. Harr, the sum on which I now live, during her natural life. Subject to her full control and benefit and free from the debts of any future husband that she may have; also all my personal estate of every description that may be left after paying my said debts and funeral expenses.

Second After the termination of the life estate of my said wife, I give and devise said farm to my child or children that she may leave surviving her, of whom I may be the parent.

Third But in the event there should be no such child or children surviving her, then in that event, I will and devise the same to my son Isaac Harr.
