

and management of my executor, I give and bequeath and direct my executors to pay over to the parties and in the proportions following to wit:

1

I give and bequeath a one-third part of said entire residue of said funds to my brother, James S. Fair.

2

I give and bequeath a one-sixth (1/6) part of said entire residue of said funds to Roy F. Bell the only child of my deceased niece Mrs. Bell who was a daughter of my deceased brother Sam. Fair.

3

I give and bequeath a one-sixth part of said entire residue of said funds to James H. Franklin, Robt. Franklin, and Annie Franklin, the three children of my deceased niece Sarah J. Franklin who was a daughter of my deceased brother Sam. Fair, said three children are to be paid said one-sixth (1/6) jointly being a one-eighth (1/8) to each of them. Should any one or more of said three children die before the payment of said legacy to them, then said one-sixth (1/6) shall be paid to the survivor or survivors.

4

I give and bequeath a one-third (1/3) part of said entire residue of said funds to John C. Fair, George Fair, Belle Fair, Hannah Fair, and James S. Fair, the five children of my deceased brother Samuel Fair, said five children are to be paid said one-third (1/3) jointly being a one-fifth (1/5) to each of them.

Should any one or more of said five children die before the payment of said legacy to them, then said one-third shall be paid to the survivor or survivors.

VIII

If any of the parties to whom I have made bequests attempts to break my will or disturb my executor by suit or otherwise in the lawful exercise of their authority, such parties shall forfeit the bequests herein made to them; and the same so forfeited shall fall into the residue of the estate for distribution among the other legatees of said residue.

IX

I hereby nominate and appoint Roy F. Bell and N. H. Franklin Executors of this my last will and testament, and direct that they shall not be required to execute bond as such executors.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, this 1st day of March, 1905. (All intimations in the foregoing will were made before same was signed)

Nicholas Fair,

Signed by the said Nicholas Fair as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, the undersigned, who, at his request, and in his sight and presence, have subscribed our names hereto as attesting witnesses, the day and date above written (1st March 1905.)

J. E. Erwin
J. M. Fair

The foregoing written instrument was proven in open Court by the oath of J. E. Erwin, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, on this the 2nd day of July, 1907, and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged declared and decreed by the Court, to be the last will and testament of Nicholas Fair, deceased, and to be recorded in the Book of Wills.

J. M. Fair

Last will and testament of Geo. W. Cotter, deceased. Probated July Term, 1907.

I, Geo. W. Cotter residing about three miles South east of Blountville, Sullivan County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing of my property, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made. I direct that all my just debts including funeral expenses and expenses of administration be paid by my executor.

2nd. I give devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Barbara A. Cotter, all my property both real and personal wherever situated to be held, managed and controlled by her during her natural life. After the death of my said wife, I direct and will that all the estate in land and personal property be held and owned by my son Emmet E. Cotter, and my daughter Maggie Kate Catter, as tenants in common my son Emmett E. Catter is to have, what is known as the home tract of land. This tract of land contains (5) acres. My son Emmett E. Catter is to pay all funeral expenses and Dr. bills. My daughter Maggie Kate Catter is to have the tract of land known as the R. M. Smith and Ellen Cross land containing (3) acres, and my said two children are to have and to own as tenants in common my and all personal property which may be set apart at the death of my said wife.

3rd I hereby nominate and appoint my said son Emmett E. Catter, sole executor of this my last will and testament and hereby excuse him from executing bond as such, having entire confidence in his honesty.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, this the 25th day of June 1906.

Attest.

R. F. Smith
J. L. Smith

Signed by the said Geo. W. Catter as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us the undersigned who at his request and in his sight and presence have subscribed our names hereto as attesting witnesses the day and date above written.

R. F. Smith,
J. L. Smith.

The foregoing written instrument was proven in open Court by the oath of R. F. Smith one of the subscribing witnesses to the said written instrument, on this the 2nd day of July, 1907, and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged declared and decreed to be the last will and testament of Geo. W. Catter deceased, and was ordered to be recorded in the Book wills.

Last Will & Testament

Moses Childress, deceased, of Bristol, Tennessee. Probated March Term 1907.

I, Moses Childress, in view of the uncertainty of life, do make this my last will and testament.

After my death it is my desire and I so will, that Mary M. C. Booney, of Sullivan County, Tennessee, wife of my deceased wife Mary, shall have one thousand dollars ($1000.00) and also all beds, bedding, chairs and table and other furniture which I may own at my death.

It is my desire and I so will, that Mary Ford, of Millwood, Ill. shall have three hundred ($300.00) dollars. Mary is married but I do not know her husband's name but her maiden name was Mary Ford.

It is my desire and I so will, that J. P. Childress of Sweetwater, Tennessee, shall have five hundred ($500.00) dollars, and that his mother, Mary Childress, of Sweetwater, Tennessee, shall have two hundred ($200.00) dollars.

It is my desire, and I so will, that Evelyn Riggs, shall have three hundred ($300.00) dollars, and that Pearl Riggs shall have two hundred ($200.00) dollars.

It is my desire, and I so will, that Fanny Moore, of Bristol, Tennessee, sister of Mary C. Booney, widow, shall have five hundred ($500.00) dollars.

It is my desire, and I so will, that Beauden Childress, shall have two hundred ($200.00) dollars, and to Chas. Childress, of Bristol $200.00.

It is my desire, and I so will, that Mrs. Sarah Childress, of Bristol, Tennessee, shall have one hundred ($100.00) dollars.

It is my desire, and I so will, that Edward Childress, of Bristol, Tennessee, shall have one hundred ($100.00) dollars.

After the payment of all costs and expenses of administration of every character and after the payment of the legacies hereinbefore set out, should there be anything left of my estate, it is my will that to the extent of $500.00 thereof, shall be paid to the Trustees of State Street Methodist Church, South for the purpose of aiding in the construction of a parsonage for the pastor of said State Street Church congregation and said sum shall be held by my Executor until such time as the building of said