

Last Will and Testament, of W. A. Cross, deceased.

I W. A. Cross, do hereby make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void all others by me at any time heretofore made. First it is my will that all my just debts be paid as soon as practicable out of any moneys I may die possessed of or that may first come into the hands of my executor from the sale of personal property or otherwise of my estate.

Second, it is my will that my beloved wife Martha Cross have, use and control for her own benefit during her natural life, all the real estate and personalty of which I may die seized and possessed.

Third, After the death of my wife Martha Cross, I give and bequeath to my daughter Ida H. Cross all of my estate both real and personal to have and to hold in fee simple, I nominate and appoint my son-in-law E.C. Smith my executor to this my last Will and Testament and excuse him from giving bond as such, witness my hand and signature this the 14th day of October, 1911.
