

Sixthly, I give and bequeath to my grand Nephew Vane Price Newland, a home-made walnut table with a drawer and white knobs, also, such other little articles about the house owned by me individually, not otherwise bequeathed, as his parents may select for him.

Seventhly, It is my will and desire that my wood-land tract of land lying and being in the tenth Civil district of Sullivan County, Tennessee on the N. side of Elkens Ridge adjoining the lands, on the North of John G. Linn and B. H. Gaines, on the East, S. D. Frost on the South, the said S. D. Frost and John Spahr, and on the West the lands of Lambirth & the Baadman heirs, containing 52 acres more or less, which said land shall be sold within two years after my decease, and out of the proceeds, I give and bequeath the sum of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) to the "Shornwell Orphanage" at Clinton South Carolina; also out of the proceeds of said land I give and bequeath to an orphan girl now about fifteen years of age known as Belle Taylor the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) which she is to receive in six years from this date, or when she reaches the age of twenty, One should she die before reaching her majority, then the said One Hundred Dollars is to be added to the two hundred dollars bequeathed to the Shornwell Orphanage as aforesaid. If there be any remaining proceeds of said land then I will and bequeath the same to the said S. A. Newland and wife Hellen A. Newland and I give them any undivided individual property of mine not herein bequeathed.

Lastly, I do hereby nominate and appoint S. A. Newland my executor. He may enter upon the office immediately after my decease without taking any oaths, giving any bond or being required to settle with the Court.

In witness whereof I do, to this my will, set my hand and seal. This 10th day of March 1898.

Last Will & Testament
of Nathan B. Casley, died. Probated July Term, 1901

I Nathan B. Casley of the County of Sullivan and State of Tennessee, being in feeble health, and feeling the uncertainty of life, and its continuation, do make and publish this as my last will and testament hereby revoking and making void all other wills, by me, at any time made.

First: I direct that funeral expenses, and all my debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any money that I may die possessed of, or may first come into the hands of my executor.
Secondly: I give grant and bequeath to my beloved wife Nancy E. Casley during her natural life, or while she survives my widow, all my property, both real and personal of which I may die seized.
Thirdly: After my wife's death I give grant and bequeath to the children of my son Edwin L. Casley

Deceased, all of the land lying west of a line made by extending the south line of the lot hereafter conveyed to Edward L. Easley Deceased and wife Mary Easley, in the same direction to the top of Rays Mountain, also one half of the personal property remaining after my wife's death, all of which property, being one half of the whole, shall be divided equally between said children.

Fourthly, I give, grant and agree to the children of my daughter Ella Strickman, formerly Easley, deceased, all of the land lying east of the above and aforesaid division line, and also one half of the personal property remaining after my wife's death, to be divided equally between said children, the whole to be subject to such restrictions and conditions as is named in clause second or secondly as above.

Fifthly, I hereby nominate and appoint my friend and wife Nancy E. Easley as executrix of this my last will, and release her from executing any such.

In testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand on this the 15 day of August 1900.

Testator

Nathan B. Easley

Signed, sealed and published in our presence, and we have subscribed our names hereto in the presence of the testator and at his request.

Last Will & Testament of
James P. Snapp Deceased

Probated August Term 1901

I, James P. Snapp, being of sound mind & memory, & realizing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do make this, my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills;

(First) I will that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall first be paid out of my general estate, & not out of that herein specially devised, unless my general estate shall be insufficient to pay and satisfy the same.

(Second) I do will and devise unto my brother L. R. Snapp and to his wife Rowena Snapp, during their natural lives and the natural life of either of them, with remainder in equal undivided interests, in fee, to their children, to wit:

Ellen H., James P., Jr., Larna and Landon R., Jr., & Paul H. and to any other children who may hereafter be born unto the said L. R. Snapp & his wife, the said Rowena Snapp by their present marriage, the following described tract or parcel of land: Situated, lying & being in the 8th Civil District of Sullivan County, Tennessee, surrounding and including the old Snapp home stead, and beginning at a corner on the side of the Blountville road common to Adolphus Smith, David Wolford and William Mine, & the land hereby devised; thence running with the line of said William Mine, to the center of the old lane above William Mine's house a corner in the said lane; thence with lane & up the same, to a point where the lane makes a turn, below where the old Martin stable stood, thence with the back fence of the hillside field, in front of the house & on to the woodland, & into said woodland to a point where the fence makes a turn, & thence on the south side of said fence a straight line to Joel Fleenor line & corner at new cleared field and thence with the lines of Joel Fleenor, Benj. Mine, the Spruain farm, Jacob Barber & David Wolford, to the place of beginning, which boundary is supposed to contain between three hundred (300) & three hundred & twenty-five (325) acres.

(Third) I do hereby will & devise to my brother Andrew J. Snapp, all that certain parcel & tract of land, owned by me, lying in the State, County & District aforesaid, begin the farm now owned by said Andrew J. Snapp, & which parcel or tract of land, as hereby willed & devised unto the said Andrew J. Snapp, lies on the south side of the following described boundary lines, beginning at the corner in the center of said old lane,
