

East and fronting on Cedar Street, this lot is now in litigation by the Chancery Court at Blountville, and if gained and held by me, my said daughter's interest is to have the same, but if lost in the suit it is not my intention that she be turned out of my estate for such loss. It is not my intention that my son J. P. Nolley shall have any of my real estate which I now own because he has heretofore been otherwise provided for.

Fifth. It is my will that all property both personal real and mixed, of which I may be seized and possessed or in any way am entitled to and which I have not herebefore disposed of, be equally divided among my children or in case either be dead, then his part to go to his lawful heirs.

Lastly, I do hereby nomination and appoint my son J. P. Nolley as my Executor and excuse him from giving bond.

In witness whereof I do to this my will, let my hand this the 24th day of November 1905-

E. S. Nolley.

Signed and published in my presence and we have subscribed our names hereto in the presence of the testator and at his request. This 24th day of November 1905-

C. C. Brown.

Last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Taylor dec'd

Retested Jan'y Term 1906.

I Elizabeth Taylor, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills that I may have heretofore been taken or by me made. I will and bequeath unto my husband Stephen T. Taylor all my personal property, choses in action &c of every description to dispose of, as he may see fit. I will and devise unto my said husband Stephen T. Taylor, the farm upon which we now live being the land descended to me from the estate of my father W. E. Snodgrass, and containing 75 acres more or less, lying and being in the Town of Sulphur, Sullivan County, Tenn. and bounded as follows to wit:

Beginning at a white oak on Humbling Spring branch thence with his line North 24° N. 11 poles + 13 links to a planted rock; S 67° W 36 1/2 poles to a planted rock, S 47° W 74 poles + 10 links to a corner thence S 73° W 28 1/2 poles to two chestnut oaks on a ridge thence with said ridge S 71° 1/4 N 90 poles and 17 links to a chestnut oak; thence S 7° W 78 1/2 poles to a chestnut oak on the top of the main ridge; thence corner thence S 71° N 12 poles to a black oak on the top of said ridge; S 65° W 14 poles to a chestnut oak; thence S 74° W 7 1/2 poles to a white oak; S 48° W 20 1/2 poles to a large poplar on said Stephen line; thence a number of new division lines S 15° E 6 poles to a white oak; S 87° E 7 1/2 poles to a white oak; S 12° E 24 poles to a rock dropped in a hollow chestnut stump & painted on the hill; S 10° E 38 poles to a planted rock & painted in the center of a fence thence S 57° 3/4 W 19 poles + 8 links to a planted rock on the old Coleman line near the Snodgrass Church; thence with said old line S 34° E 65 poles and 8 links to a stake in the center of a road between two planted limestone rocks 30 links apart thence down the center of said road S 43° E 10 poles + 19 links to a solid rock marked T. S. in front of a house, thence S 80° E 20 poles + 8 links to the beginning.

Also I will and devise to my said husband Stephen T. Taylor, the interest in said W. E. Snodgrass, given that he descended to me as heir at law of said W. E. Snodgrass and son of said W. E. Snodgrass, and my half brother, all of said land I will and devise to my beloved husband Stephen T. Taylor, to own control and dispose of, as he may deem.

In testimony whereof I herewith subscribe my names on this the 13th day of 1906
