Last Will & Testament

J. J. Enser, deceased.

Probated March Term 1907

I, the undersigned J. J. Enser, of Bristol Tennessee, being sound in mind and memory, of full age and sound in body, do hereby make, declare and publish this my last will and Testament, revoking and declaring void any and all other Wills by me at any time heretofore made.

First:—I desire and direct that my Executor hereinafter named pay all my just debts and funeral expenses as soon as may be convenient after my death, including suitable monument at my grave. Also, in the event my beloved wife, Amanda Enser, shall survive me, I desire and direct that her funeral expenses shall be paid out of my estate; or if she should not survive me and the same should not be paid before my death, I direct that same shall be paid out of my estate, including suitable monument at her grave.

Second:—I further will and direct that my said wife, Amanda Enser, in the event she shall survive me, shall have and be provided a comfortable support, such as she shall request, during her natural life, out of my estate by my two sons, William T. Enser and George M. Enser, and which I hereby declare as a lien upon my estate.

Third:—I further will and direct that my two sons, William T. Enser and George M. Enser shall pay to my daughter, Mrs. Emma Thomas, wife of M. D. Thomas, the sum of three hundred dollars ($300), the same to be in full settlement and discharge of all claims and interest of the said Emma Thomas in my estate, and to be paid to her within a reasonable time after my death, and which shall be a lien on my estate, secondary to the lien in favor of my said wife, until payment is made.

Fourth:—I bequeath to the foregoing leguists and provisions, I give, devise and bequeath unto my two sons, William T. Enser and George M. Enser, my entire estate, of every kind and character, real personal and mixed, and wherever situated, in equal shares as tenants in common, an undivided one-half interest to each, in fee simple absolute, including my home or residence property at the corner of Cherry and 7th streets in Bristol, Tennessee, and all lots or property located adjacent thereto or elsewhere, of which I may be seized and possessed, and including, as well, all household and kitchen furniture.

Fifth:—I name and appoint W. D. Enser as executor of this my last will and Testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto signed my name, in the presence of J. H. Caldwell and H. D. Bachman, who, at my request, in my presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto signed their names as subscribing witnesses; all done on this the 11th day of July, 1906.

J. J. Enser.

We, the undersigned, J. H. Caldwell and H. D. Bachman, at the request of J. J. Enser, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto signed our names as subscribing witnesses to this last will and Testament of the said J. J. Enser, on this the 11th day of July, 1906.

J. H. Caldwell
 H. D. Bachman.

The foregoing written instrument was proven in open Court by the oath of J. H. Caldwell and H. D. Bachman the subscribing witnesses thereto, on this the 30th day of March 1907. And thereupon said written instrument was adjudged, declared and decreed by the Court to be the last will and testament of J. J. Conner, deceased, and ordered to be entered of record in the Book of Wills.
