Last will & Testament

of Probated June 1904 Mrs. Annette C. Ferguson, died.

I, Annette C. Ferguson, of sound mind and disposing memory being desirous of disposing of property, both real and personal, do hereby dispose of same as follows:

First All personal property that I now or may hereafter own, I may come to me, I give and bequeath to my beloved husband, S. H. Ferguson, for his use and benefit, to be disposed of by him as it may seem to him best, Except some articles (family keep sakes) which I wish my children and friends to have, which articles I will name and dispose of at the close of this my will.

Second My real estate situated and fronting on Broad Street, in the City of Bristol Sullivan County, Tennessee, where I now reside, I give, devise and bequeath to my said husband S. H. Ferguson, for his use and benefit during his life, with remainder to my five children after the death of my said husband, to-wit: Robert Minter Ferguson, Samuel Drummond Ferguson, William D. Ferguson, Hemmett Gray Ferguson, and Clarence Warren Ferguson, who are all the children I have.

Third, I appoint Robert Minter Ferguson as my Executor of this my last will and Testament, and with authority and power, after the death of my said husband to sell and convey the realty herein described in as full and ample manner as I, if living could do, and the proceeds to divide equally among my five children herein named.
Said Executor shall execute and in double the amount of the value of my realty.
In witness whereof I do to this, my will, set my hand this the 10th day of September 1903.

Annette C. Ferguson.

Signed and published in our presence, and we have subscribed our names thereto, in the presence of the testatrix, this the 10th day of September 1903.

Geo. D. Hammer.

John P. Hammer.
