Last Will and Testament of
Mabel A. Smith, deceased Probated January Term 1903

I the undersigned, Mabel A. Smith, wife of L. C. Smith, formerly of Milledgeville, Georgia, realizing the uncertainty of life and being of sound mind and disposing mind, do hereby make, declare and publish this as my last will and testament, hereby expressly revoking any and all wills by me at any time made void any and all other wills by me at any time made.

First: I direct my executor, hereinafter named, to pay my funeral expenses and all paid debts owing by me at the time of my death out of the first funds not hereinafter specifically disposed of, that may come into his hands.

Second: I own a note for one thousand dollars, $1000.00, dated October, 2nd 1901, due two years after date, with interest from date, executed to L. C. Smith, and myself and endorsed to me by L. C. Smith, and which said note is executed by John B. Cunningham to cover the second deferred payment on property, #514 State Street, Bristol, Tennessee, and upon which property said note is a lien. I hereby will the interest on the above note accrue and to accrue to my relative Mrs. Hattie C. Hill. The Principal of said above described note, one thousand dollars, I hereby set aside as a trust fund for the benefit of the said Mrs. Hattie C. Hill during her natural life, she to have during the said term of her natural life, the full use, benefit and control of the interest or income to be derived from said sum as hereinafter directed to or derived, subject to the payment of taxes on the said principal sum. I hereby nominate P. M. Leedy as Trustee for the said Mrs. Hattie C. Hill, and authorize and direct him to take
