

The foregoing written instrument was further proved in open Court by the oath of J. D. Ord, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto on this 20th day of January, 1906, and Thompson said written instrument was adjudged declared and decreed by the Court to be the last will and testament of Elizabeth J. Taylor deceased and ordered to be recorded in the Book of Wills.

Letter

J. A. R. Snowden

Test Will and Testament of
Susan Gracious Auld

State of Tennessee I Susan Garrison of the County Sullivan Co. do hereby certify that I have witnessed the signing of my property as I think just right and being in sound health and sound of mind I do make this my will and desire 1st after my funeral expenses are paid out of my effects.
My will is that all of my personal estate which consist of four horse and certain furniture & stock of all kinds that I may have on hand at my death also any money or notes or accounts that I have shall be equally divided between the children of L. H. Copenhaver and wife Ellen Copen-haver, which is my daughter. I wish also that in consideration of those things that Mary a colored girl that I raised & now lives with me shall be cared for by them so that she shall not want for a maintenance during her life.
In witness of this request I have this day affixed my signature this 9th day of November, 1900.

after.

Susan Grosvenor

H. H. Peckham.)

H. D. Hill

W. D. Rice. The foregoing written instrument was proven in open Court, by the oaths of F. A. Peckham & W. D. Rice, subscribing witnesses to said paper writings, on this the 18th day of January, 1906, and thereupon said written instrument was ad- judged, declared and decreed by the Court, to be the last will and Testament of Susan Groves, deceased, and ordered to be re- corded in the Book of Wills.

Testa:

Mr R. Snow Clerk

Last Will & Testament Probated January Term, 1906

Kate Robertson Dec. 21. Kate Robertson, to make & publish

This my Last Will and Testament

Thereby revoking and Making void all other wills by me at any time made.

First I direct that my funeral expenses and all other debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any moneys of which I may die possessed, or may first come into the hands of my Executor.

Secondly, I give & bequeath all remaining money and my household goods to S. Russell Parley and Pessie, his wife in consideration of their giving me a home and caring for me in my days of infirmity.

Not to nominate and appoint C. H. Husey Oakley My Executor and direct that he be excused from giving bond.

in witness whereof I do to this my well My hand this Oct. 28th 1900.

Kate Wharton

Orville Duncan

Apr. 12 1890

Witnesses

Signed & published in our presence and in their Subscribed our names here to in the presence of the testator, this 28 day of Oct. 1908.

The foregoing written instrument was brought in open Court by the oath of John Boring, one of the subscribing witnesses, here on this the 24th day of January 1880, and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged to be proved and decreed by the Court to be the last will and testament of late Peter Larson deceased, and ordered to be recorded in the Book of Wills.

Photo.

Brook House, Brook
By Stephen D. C.