

1. I give and bequeath to my husband, John E. Drake all my property, consisting of money, real and other personal property that may be in my possession at the time of my death for his life time.
 2. At his death, I bequeath the above property to Ethel Belle Drake, and her heirs, if any forever.
 3. Should the said Ethel Belle Drake die before the said John E. Drake, then at his death, I give and bequeath the above property in equal parts to Mr. Caracross and Mrs. Caracross.
 4. I appoint C. J. Farr, executor of this my will.
- In witness whereof, I Martha Lou Drake, have hereunto set my hand this thirty-first day of August 1908.

Martha Lou Drake

W. H. Roof

J. B. Wolford

Witnesses

The foregoing written instrument was shown in open Court by the oaths of W. H. Roof and J. B. Wolford subscribing witnesses thereto, on this the 20th day of Nov. 1909 and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged declared and decreed and ordered to be entered of record in the Book of Wills.

Attest: J. Kyle, Clerk.

By D. A. Hargens, D.C.

Last Will and Testament

of

James O. Harbour, deceased

Protested Dec. Term 1909

I James O. Harbour, of the County of Sullivan, State of Tennessee, realizing the uncertainty of life, and being of feeble health, but of sound mind and judgment, do make and declare this to be my last will and Testament in manner and form following to wit: First, I give devise and bequeath to my wife Sarah J. Harbour, all my personal property and real estate or sufficient amount for her decent support her life including funeral expenses.

Second, after her death all personal property and real estate shall be divided equal among my children giving each one an equal share and I give to my eldest child William Harbour his share on the Creek where he built his house, and to my youngest child Edell Harbour, her share to cover the house buildings. The other children namely Mary Harbour, Amanda Harbour, Laura Harbour, George Harbour, John Harbour, Dana Harbour, do have their shares so not to cover the two above named. My land shall be divided by a Community of three disinterested men one of which shall be Surrogate, said Community to be selected by agreement of a majority of legal heirs. If any of the heirs should die leaving no heirs their share after funeral expenses shall be divided equal among the rest.

I here appoint my wife Sarah J. Harbour and George W. Harbour my executor to see my property personal or real sufficient to pay all my debts the rest to remain according to the body of this will.

The above will and Testament shall not ^{take} effect till after my death.

In witness whereof I have set my hand and seal this 10 day of Feb. one thousand nine hundred and three (1903)

James O. Harbour

Signed sealed and acknowledged by the above named Testator to be his last will and Testament in our presence and in each at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other. Subscribed our names as witnesses.

Jack Crawford

Thomas Crawford

The foregoing written instrument was shown in open Court by the oaths of Jack Crawford and Thomas Crawford the subscribing witnesses thereto, on this the 20 day of December 1909, and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged, declared and decreed by the Court to be the last will and Testament of James O. Harbour, deceased, and ordered to be entered in the Book of Wills.

Attest: J. Kyle, Clerk.

By D. A. Hargens, D.C.

Last Will and Testament

of

W. M. Dink, deceased.

Protested Jan. Term 1910

I W. M. Dink, of the County of Sullivan and State of Tennessee, being of sound mind and memory