Last Will & Testament

H. H. King Dec'd

Probated August term 1904

I, H. H. King, of Sullivan County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and memory, do make, declare, and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and declaring void any and all wills by me at any time heretofore made.

First: I desire and direct that my Executor herein after named, pay off all my just debts and funeral expenses out of my personal estate as soon after my death as practicable.

Second: Subject to the above provision for the payment of my debts, etc, I give, devise and bequeath my entire estate, of every kind, character, and description, real, personal and mixed, of which I may die seized and possessed, wherever the same may be situated, and including among other properties, unless disposed of and conveyed by me before my death, the farm upon which I now reside at Thomas Bridge, Sullivan County, Tennessee, known as the "Thomas Farm", and the store-house No. 514 State Street, Bristol Tennessee, now occupied by Carnack-English Company, in equal shares to my half sister, Mary A. Morgan, and her daughter, Pauline Morgan, to be used and enjoyed by them during their natural lives upon the terms and under the provisions herein stipulated.

That is to say: I hereby name and appoint E. K. Bachman, of Bristol, Tennessee as Trustee, for the purposes herein after set out, I authorize the said Mary A. Morgan and Pauline Morgan, or either of them, to sell or dispose of all or any part of their respective shares in my estate at such time, in such way, and upon such terms as they, or either may deem necessary for their convenience, support and maintenance; but any part or portion, of any of my property or effects, or proceeds thereof, remaining at the death of the survivor of said Mary A. Morgan and Pauline Morgan, shall go to their children, or descendants of children, as herein after provided, if survived by children or descendants of children; otherwise to my natural heirs as provided in section three of this instrument.

But I vest the legal title to my estate in the said above named Trustee and require and direct that in order to sell or dispose of all or any part thereof and to use all or any part of the corpus for their convenience, support and maintenance they shall first obtain the consent of said Trustee to do. Any deed executed by said Mary A. Morgan and Pauline Morgan, or either, joined by said Trustee, shall vest in the purchaser good and absolute title to the property or interest in property thereby conveyed.

It is, however, my desire and I direct that at her death the interest of the said Mary A. Morgan in my estate (or the proceeds thereof), then remaining, if any, shall go to any child or children, or the descendants of children, she may leave surviving her, subject to the same terms and provisions as are herein made as to the share in my estate hereby expressly willed to the said Pauline Morgan.

It is further more my will and I direct that at the death of the said Pauline Morgan her interest in my estate (or the proceeds thereof) then remaining, if any, shall go to any child or children, or the descendants of children, she may leave surviving her, in fee simple. If however, the said Pauline Morgan should die without child or children, or the descendants of children, surviving her, and should be survived by her said mother, then her interest in my estate (or proceeds thereof), then remaining, if any shall go to the said Mary A. Morgan subject to the same terms and provisions as are herein made as to the interest in my estate hereby expressly willed to the said Mary A. Morgan.

Third: It is my will and desire and I direct that in the event the said Mary A. Morgan should die leaving no other child or children, or their descendants, surviving her ex-
