Last Will and Testament of William & Elizabeth Moore Probated April Term 1808.

State of Tennessee Sullivan County February the 7 1808 Know all men by these presents that William Moore and Elizabeth Moore both of the County and State aforesaid and of sound mind, being now duly in our right minds and knowing that it is appointed unto all men once to die we do hereby make our last will and testament the same to be permanent and unchangeable and we do herein will and bequeath unto James Stone and Sallie Stone forever all the lands and personal possessions and other valuables that we now own or hereafter may be possessed with the same said James and Sallie Stone who are now living with us in the consideration of the relations they sustain to us and in the consideration of them living with us and waiting upon us. First we do will that James & Stone shall have two thirds of the lands and other possessions herein mentioned and that Sallie Stone have the remaining one third after our just debts and funeral expenses are paid each paying their proportionable part of the same, the same boundaries bounded as follows: on the South by Delaney on the West by Stewart on the North by Cottman and Daily on the East by Wood this boundary is supposed to contain one hundred and fifty acres more or less and in witness of the same we do hereunto set our hands and seal
