Last Will & Testament of
Jeremiah Bunting dec'd.  Certified Copy.

I, Jeremiah Bunting Senior being in the full possession of my mental faculties and anxious to arrange for the proper distribution of my property after my death do hereby make my last will and testament as follows:

Inasmuch as the house occupied by me on Moore Street in Bristol, Virginia, together with the lot adjoining is the property of my wife and as the insurance policies held by me and in the Rights of Honor and the other in the Knights and Ladies of Honor are both payable to her, and inasmuch further as one half of the store, fixtures, etc. of the Drug Store of Bunting and Son is the property of my son Lindsey but being already an equal partner with me in said business, I make herein reference to the disposal of the properties thus owned by my wife and son Lindsey respectively.

During the life time of my wife I prefer that she should succeed me as equal partner in the Drug Store with my son Lindsey and that no change be made in the business during her lifetime. I express this however only as a preference, and with no desire to prevent her selling this share in the store etc. if she deems it wise to do so.
