

Last Will & Testament

of Rhoda Harrington dec'd. Probated July Term 1907

I Rhoda Harrington do make and publish this as my last will and testament hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any time made.

1st I give and bequeath to James H. Harrington my Son all the lands on which I now live and I give to my Son James H. Harrington two Beds and bed clothing and cupboard and Bed room and all the pot vessels, providing however that said James H. Harrington my Son takes proper care of me furnishing me with every thing suited to my age during life and he pays all my funeral expenses in witness whereof I do to this my will set my hand and seal this the 30 day of September 1897

Rhoda Harrington seal

Signed Seal and published in our presence and we have subscribed our names hereto in the presence of the testator this the 30 day of September 1897.

E. S. Jones
Hiram Greening

The foregoing written instrument was proven in open Court by the oaths of E. S. Jones & Hiram Greening subscribing witnesses thereto on this the 1st day of July 1907 and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged declared and decreed by the Court to be the last will and testament of Rhoda Harrington declared and ordered to be recorded in the Book of wills.

Teste

S. J. Kyle Clerk.
By D. A. Barger D. C.

Last Will & Testament

of Samuel Chapman dec'd. Probated July Term 1907

I Samuel Chapman of Sullivan County, Tennessee do make and publish this my last will and testament hereby revoking any and all wills by me heretofore made. I direct that all my debts be paid by my executors as soon as after my death as possible.

I will my wife F. B. Chatman my Land where I now live and all my personal property one Bull and one Cow this April 13 1907.

Samuel Chatman

Witness J. E. McShee
Witness N. C. Booker

The foregoing written instrument was proven in open Court by the oaths of J. E. McShee and N. C. Booker subscribing witnesses thereto on this the 1st day of July 1907 and thereupon said paper writing was adjudged declared and decreed by the Court to be the last will and testament of Samuel Chatman dec'd. and ordered to be recorded in the Book of wills.

Teste

S. J. Kyle Clerk.
By D. A. Barger D. C.

Last Will & Testament

of Joseph B. Wesley dec'd. Probated July Term 1907

I Joseph B. Wesley of the County of Sullivan and State of Tennessee being of sound mind and memory and knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death do make and publish this my last will and testament as follows:

1st I desire that any debts or claims that may exist against me at the time of my death shall be paid as soon after that event as possible.

2nd I hereby will bequeath and devise to my wife Sarah A. Wesley and to my four children to wit: Ethel B. Allen, Plennie M. and Blannie all my real and personal property owned and possessed by me at the time of my death of whatever kind and character to share equally and alike so long as my wife Sarah A. shall remain with either of the four children above named. She is to share equally with them.

3. My youngest child Blannie being now only about seven years of age I direct that my property both real and personal shall be under the control of my wife Sarah until said youngest child arrives at the age of twenty one years and then the whole be divided amongst themselves and in case either desires to sell his or her interest in said property either real or personal I direct that the said sale shall be made to each other and not to person or persons outside the family.

4. I hereby designate and appoint my wife Sarah A. Wether as executrix of this will and desire that she shall not be required to give any bond this 15th day of June 1903.

J. R. Wether.

The foregoing will was signed by the testator in our presence, and we attested the same in his presence and at his request.

This 15th day of June 1903

L. B. Owens
J. C. Hunt

The foregoing written instrument was proven in open court by the acts of L. B. Owens and J. C. Hunt subscribing witnesses thereto on this the 1st day of July 1907, and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged declared and decreed by the Court to be the last will and testament of J. R. Wether deceased and ordered to be recorded in the Book of Wills.

Teste.

S. J. Kyle Clerk
By D. A. Barger, D. C.

Last Will and Testament
of
Many M. Wood, dec'd. Probated Sept Term 1907

I, Many M. Wood, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills by me at any time made.

I will and devise to my beloved husband, J. C. Wood, my house and lot situated on the East side of Penn. Avenue, in Harrison and addition to Bristol Sullivan County, Tennessee, said house being numbered 808, and said lot fronting fifty (50) feet on the East side of Penn Avenue, and extending back between parallel lines one hundred and fifty (150) feet to an alley, and adjoining the West lot of John A. Biskner, on the North and the property of the Anderson lot on the South. In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name in the presence of the subscribing witnesses here to, on this the 25th day of March, 1907.

Many M. Wood

Witnesses
A. C. Keebler
R. Rice

The foregoing written instrument was proven in open court by the acts of A. C. Keebler and R. Rice, subscribing witnesses thereto, on this the 2nd day of Sept 1907, and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged declared and decreed by the Court to be the last will and testament of Many M. Wood, deceased, and ordered to be recorded in the Book of Wills.

Teste

S. J. Kyle, Clerk.

Last Will & Testament
of
H. C. Fain, deceased. Probated Sept Term 1907

I, H. C. Fain, of Sullivan County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills by me at any time made.

II

I direct that all my just debts, including funeral expenses, be paid as soon after my death as possible, out of any moneys that I may then possess or of that may first come into the hands of my Executor.

III

I give and bequeath to my brother, Nicholas Fain, for life, should he survive me, all my personal property, of every kind and description, after the payment of my debts, as directed in paragraph II, after the termination of his life estate therein said personal property shall be disposed of as herein by directed.

III

I will and devise to my said brother, Nicholas Fain, for life, should he survive me, all my real estate, consisting of an undivided one-half interest in a tract of land on which he and I now live, situated in the 18 civil district of Sullivan County, Tennessee, containing three hundred and forty-two (342) acres, more or less, and bounded on the North by the lands of James Bond, on the East by the lands of the heirs of Wm. Boy, deceased, and R. H. Sanders,