

The foregoing written instrument was further proven in open Court by the oaths of Samuel Thomas and J. S. Hicks subscribing witnesses to said paper written on this the 10th day of February, 1906, and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged declared and decreed by the Court to be the last will and Testament of J. S. Masengill dead, and ordered to be recorded in the Book of Wills.

Teste

Geo. H. Snow Clerk

Last Will Testament of ~~William~~ William John 1906

Mary Peun died in the name of God amen. I Mary Peun, being of feeble health, but of sound and disposing mind and being aware of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do make this my last will and Testament hereby revoking all wills by me at any time heretofore made.

I hereby nominate and appoint Robert Peun as the executor of this my last will and Testament with power to act without bond.

I direct that my body be given a decent burial according to the direction of my executor. I direct that all my just debts, including funeral, expenses and expenses of my administration, be paid by my executor.

I bequeath to my daughter Callio the Piano now in my house, the parlor suit of furniture, and a China press full of China dishes, and my bed room suit, in the par. room of this house, 229 E. State Street, Bridge, Tennessee.

The other things I bequeath to my beloved daughter Lucy Thompson, and the residue of my personal property I give to my children, to be divided equally among them, except the money in hands, of that I give & bequeath to my beloved son Andrew Peun the sum of twenty five Dollars and the rest for my husband to do with as he pleases.

Out of the money left after the payment of my debts and funeral expenses and my on my husband's policies, I give the residue to my beloved daughter Callio.

I give devise and bequeath the house and lot now owned by me on East State Street where I now live to my beloved husband and my children, including Callio, if my children wishes her to share with them in this property, to be equally held by them, and equally divided in the event they should wish to sell.

I give devise and bequeath to my beloved daughter Callio the house and lot on East State Street, West adjoining the house where I live, and East of the property above devised to be held by her during her life, to her sole and separate use and should she have issue alive at the time of her death, then said property is to pass to them and become the property of her heirs, but should she not leave any heirs at the time of her death, then the property thereby conveyed to her is to revert back and become the property of my other children.

In Testimony Whereof I have hereunto set my hand on this the 11th day of February, 1906.

Mary Peun

Signed by the said Mary Peun as and for her last will and Testament in the presence of us, the undersigned, who at her request, and in her sight and presence, have subscribed our names hereto as attesting witnesses, the day and date above written.

J. D. Baughman
Lillian Wilson

The foregoing written instrument was proven in open Court by the oath of Lillian Wilson one of the subscribing witnesses to said written instrument, on this the 10th day of February, 1906, and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged declared and decreed by the Court to be the last will and Testament of Mary Peun deceased and ordered to be recorded in the Book of Wills.

Teste

Geo. H. Snow Clerk