John Rosenbaum Perbated March term 1901.

I John Rosenbaum knowing the uncertainty of life and certainty of death, and being in my right mind, desire to dispose of the property I now possess. I hereby make this my last will and testament.

1st I desire my body a decent Christian burial the expense of which is to be paid out of money owing to me, or my personal property.

2nd I give unto my wife S. E. Rosenbaum all my personal property. Consisting of all stock on hands all household property also, twenty one dollars which my son Jim Rosenbaum owe me. I also give her the tract of land on which I now live embracing all the land owned by me on the north side of Holston river during her lifetime at her death to her heirs. I having sold to my son Frank Rosenbaum four acres of this tract next to the river for the sum of twenty five dollars, there having been no payment on the same up to this time now if he should make payment to me during my lifetime, or to my wife after my death I desire a good and sufficient deed be made to him, in case said 2500 is not pay either to me during my lifetime or my wife after my death my wife shall hold the aboved named price of land.

3rd I give unto my sons George Rosenbaum and Frank Rosenbaum my mill property formerly known as the Dover mill property. They to be equal sharers in the same, provided they shall pay to each of my him the sum of one dollar

In testimony whereof I hereunto sign my name and affix my seal this 19th day of Nov, in the year of our Lord 1900.
