

My body is the dust from whence it came.
2712

I have an undivided interest in a tract of land situated in Washington County, Tennessee, known as the Glenn farm. Now in litigation in the Chancery Court at Jonesboro, Tennessee in the cause of Isaac Cutshaw and wife Jennie Cutshaw vs. Rufus Magg Stale, which said tract may be sold for distribution, or may be partitioned in kind.

Inasmuch the land is sold for distribution, it is my will, and I direct that whatever I may get from the proceeds of the sale of said land, the same shall be paid to my husband Isaac Cutshaw, to be held by him in trust for himself and my children, Walter Cutshaw, Jennie Cutshaw, John W. Cutshaw and Lena Cutshaw, and to be invested by my husband Isaac Cutshaw in a home for himself and my children aforesaid, taking title to himself and my children aforesaid. My said husband Isaac Cutshaw intend to be only for and during his natural life. My son William Cutshaw to have one half interest in excess of my other children, giving him one and one half interest. In case the land should be partitioned in kind then my husband to take by the County will attach thereto, and it is my will that my four children aforesaid shall take the land subject to my husband's life estate, in the same proportion that they would take the proceeds of the sale of the land.
(3)

I appoint my beloved husband Isaac Cutshaw Testamentary Guardian for my minor children, Lena Cutshaw, Jennie Cutshaw, J. W. Cutshaw.

H.

I nominate and appoint R. E. W. Russell my executor of this my last will and testament.

S'

I call W. A. Ray Esq. and William Barnett to witness this my last will and testament. Given under my hand this 22nd day of February 1908.

Witnesses

W. A. Ray
William Barnett.

Jennie Cutshaw
Jennie Cutshaw

The foregoing written instrument was pronounced in open Court by the oath of W. A. Ray and William Barnett subscribing witnesses thereto, on this the 16 day of April 1908, and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged, declared and decreed by the Court to be the last will and testament of Jennie Cutshaw, deceased, and ordered to be recorded in the Book of wills.

Attest.

J. J. Doyle Clerk
By R. A. Raper, D.C.

Last will and testament

of
Elizabeth Smith dec'd
1908

I Elizabeth H. Smith of Sullivan County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills by me at any time made.

First.

I direct that all my just debts, including my funeral expenses, be paid as soon after my death as may be convenient, out of any moneys or other personal property that I may be possessed of.

Second.

I will and devise to my son, Earl B. Smith, the dwelling house in which I now reside, together with the small enclosed lot or parcel of land on which it stands, and the parcel lot adjoining, and attached thereto; also one third of the lot of adjoining the lot upon which said dwelling house is located, and running East to the C. & N. Southern Railway. Said house and lots fronting on Sulby Street, in the town of Bristol, Tennessee, in the 17th Civil District of Sullivan County, but this devise is not to include any lot or lots adjoining the lots here in devised to my said son, Earl B. Smith. I would prefer that my said son should not sell or dispose of said house and lot while he lives, but should occupy same as a home. But this is only the expression of my personal preference, and is not intended to bind him as to be construed as being imperative and binding upon him. I devise said property to him in fee simple, and without any conditions or restrictions imposed upon him.

I also will and devise to my said son, Earl B. Smith, one lot or parcel of land, upon which is located two small buildings, on tenth Street and Grimes Alley, in the town of Bristol, Tennessee, 17th Civil District of Sullivan County, Tennessee, adjoining Hunterson on the North and East.

Third

I give and bequeath to my said son, Carl B. Smith all the household and kitchen furniture of every kind and description, that may be in the dwelling house heretofore described to him, at the date of my death, but the large iron safe in said dwelling is not to be included in this bequest.

Fourth

I will and devise to my son, Robert H. Smith, all the remainder of my real estate, situated in the town of Bristol, Tennessee or elsewhere else situated, and of whatever nature or kind, and by what soever title held.

Fifth

I prefer that there shall be no executor or administrator of my estate, but that my said two sons pay my funeral expenses and any just debts that I may owe, out of any money or personal property I may own at the time of my death. But if for any reason, it should become necessary or advisable that there should be an executor, I hereby nominate and appoint C. A. Hodges executor of this, my last will, and testament, and direct that he shall not be required to execute and as such, in witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 12 day of April, 1908.

All interlineations and erasures made before signing?
Attest, W. A. Hodges Elizabeth H. Smith
Attest, C. A. Hodges

Signed (by mark) by the said Elizabeth H. Smith, is and for her last will and testament, in the presence of us, the undersigned, who, at her request, and in her sight and presence, have subscribed our names hereto, as attesting witnesses, the day and date above written (April 12, 1908)

C. A. Hodges
W. A. Hodges

The foregoing written instrument was publicly proved in open Court by the oath of C. A. Hodges one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, on the 20 day of May, 1908, and thereupon was continued for further proof.

Attest,

S. J. Hople, Clerk,
By W. A. Hodges, D. C.

The foregoing written instrument was further proved in open Court by the oath of W. A. Hodges the other subscribing witness thereto, on this the 8 day of June 1908, and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged declared, and decreed by the Court to be the last will and testament of Elizabeth H. Smith, deceased, and ordered to be recorded in the Book of wills.

Attest,

S. J. Hople, Clerk,
By W. A. Hodges, D. C.

Last will and testament of Abraham Sanders, dec'd. Probated May term 1908.

To all whom it may concern, Know, ye, that I, Abraham Sanders of the County of Sullivan, State of Tennessee, being of sound mind, but in feeble health, and being desirous of making disposition of my property to my children, hereby make this my last will and testament, to wit:

1st I will and bequeath to my said John Sanders one thousand ($1000) dollars, this being the amount for which my son A. H. Sanders executed his note to the John Sanders eight or ten years ago, all of which has been fully paid.

2nd I will and bequeath to my son Abraham H. Sanders a tract of land lying in the 18th Civil Dist. of Sullivan County, known as the 1000 sq. ft. farm containing about 100 acres adjoining the lands of David Boy, J. S. Hamilton & heirs, et al. - this being the same for which I have already executed a deed of conveyance to the said Abraham Sanders upon conditions that he pay to my son John Sanders the full amount of one thousand dollars as set forth above.

3rd I will and bequeath to my daughter Cornelia, wife of ~~Matthew~~ ^{Marion} Marion, a tract of land lying in the 20th Civil Dist. of Sullivan Co., adjoining the lands of Andrew Goodman et al. and containing about 63 acres, the same being the land upon which she now resides.

And I further will and bequeath to the above named my daughter Cornelia, the sum of four hundred ($400) dollars to be paid her by my son Michael S. Sanders, and also the further sum of one hundred ($100) dollars which I have heretofore given her by the hand of my son A. H. Sanders, under my direction.