

Count to be the last will and Testament of D. H. Cole deceased, and ordered to be recorded in the Book of wills

Test:

Geo R. Snow Clerk

Last Will and Testament of
N. H. Cole Probated November Term 1902

I, N. H. Cole of Childress, Sullivan County, Tennessee, do make and publish this as my last will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all wills by me heretofore made.

1. I direct that all my debts be paid by my executor as soon after my death as possible.

2. I direct that all of my Real Estate be sold by my executor as soon as he may think best, and that the money obtained from said sale, be placed at interest for the benefit of my wife and child until said child arrives at the age of twenty one (21) years, and that the interest accruing from the loan of said money, be collected semiannually.

3. I direct that my executor shall collect all debts due me, and that he shall sell such of my personal property, as in his judgment he may deem best within a reasonable time after my death.

I appoint my brother L. E. Cole to be executor of this will.

This August 22 1902

N. H. Cole

The foregoing will was signed by the testator in our presence and we attested the same in his presence and at his request

This Aug 22, 1902

D. H. Gillis
J. H. Kelly John

State of Tennessee The foregoing written instrument was proven in open Court by the oath of D. H. Gillis and J. H. Kelly John and is hereby recorded this 30th day of November, 1902 and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged declared and decreed by the Court to be the last will and Testament of N. H. Cole deceased, and ordered to be recorded in the Book of wills.

Test:

Geo R. Snow Clerk

Last Will & Testament of Matilda J. Smith, died Probated January Term 1903

I the undersigned Matilda J. Smith, wife of L. C. Smith, formerly by Matilda J. Pappas, realizing the uncertainty of life and being of sound mind and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, declare and publish this as my last Will and Testament, hereby expressly revoking any and all other wills by me at any time made.

First: I direct my executor, hereinafter named, to pay my funeral expenses and all just debts owing by me at the time of my death out of the first funds, not hereinafter specifically disposed of, that may come into his hands.

Second: I own a note for one thousand dollars, $1000.00, dated October 2nd 1901, due two years after date, with interest from date, executed to L. C. Smith and myself and endorsed to me by L. C. Smith, and which said note is executed by John B. Baumgardner to cover the second deferred payment on property, #514 State Street, Bristol, Tennessee, and upon which property said note is a lien. I hereby will the interest on the above note to accrue and to accrue to my relative Mrs. Hattie C. Hill. The Principal of said above described note, one thousand dollars, I hereby set aside as a trust fund for the benefit of the said Mrs. Hattie C. Hill during her natural life, she to have during the said term of her natural life, the full use, benefit and control of the interest or income to be derived from said sum as hereinafter directed to be derived, subject to the payment of taxes on the said principal sum. I hereby nominate P. M. Leedy as Trustee for the said Mrs. Hattie C. Hill, and authorize and direct him to take Charge of said note or the proceeds thereof, and a loan and re-loans upon good real estate security only, to such person or persons and upon such time or times as he may deem best, said principal sum of one thousand dollars, making the interest thereon payable either semi-annually or annually, and pay the said interest over to the said Mrs. Hattie C. Hill so long as she shall live, at the death of the said Mrs. Hattie C. Hill it is my will, and I hereby will, devise and bequeath said principal sum of one thousand dollars to Hugh M. Hill, her son, absolutely and to do with as he pleases, but the same shall not be encroached upon by either so long as they both shall live. If, however, the said Mrs. Hattie C. Hill shall survive her said son, Hugh M. Hill, it is my will and I hereby direct, will and devise said principal sum of one thousand dollars to her to do with as she pleases. I hereby direct that the said P. M. Leady be not required to execute any bond as Trustee as I have full confidence in his integrity should the said Leady decline to act as such Trustee or should he die or resign. I hereby nominate, upon the same terms and with the same duties and powers, as his successor, John H. Caldwell.

Third: I have one other note against the said John B. Baumgardner for a like sum and similar to the above described note except that it is due three years after date and comes the third deferred payment on said property. I hereby will, devise and bequeath this note and its interest to my husband, L. C. Smith.

Fourth: I hereby will, devise and bequeath to my said husband, L. C. Smith, my residence property in Bristol, Tennessee, being house number 120 on the west side of Fifth Street and a corner of Fifth, Broad and Anderson Streets; also the house and lot adjoining the same on the North purchased by my said husband and myself from Smith. These houses and lots I will to my said husband in fee.

Fifth: I hereby nominate my husband, L. C. Smith, Executor of this my last will and testament and request that no bond be required of him as such.

In testimony of all of which I have hereunto signed my name on this the 6th day of November, 1902. J. A. Dickey and P. M. Leady, hereby signed Matilda J. Smith this will in the presence of Matilda J. Smith and in the presence of each other and at her request. J. A. Dickey P. M. Leady

State of Tennessee Sullivan County The foregoing written instrument was proven in open court by the oaths of J. A. Dickey and P. M. Leady subscribing witnesses thereto on this the 6th day of January 1903 and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged declared and decreed by the Court to be the last will testament of Matilda J. Smith deceased, and ordered to be recorded in the Book of Wills. J. A. Dickey Prob. Sec. Snow Clerk

Last Will & Testament of Jesse B. Booker, deceased. Dated March 2nd, 1903. Jesse B. Booker, deceased. By the Name of God Amen, I, Jesse B. Booker, of Sullivan County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void all former Wills by me at any time heretofore made. First - I order and direct my Executor, as soon after my decease as practicable to pay off and discharge all the legal debts, dues and liabilities that may exist against me at the time of my decease. Second - I give and bequeath unto my son, Joseph A. Booker, the Homestead on which I now reside on condition of his paying to my three daughters - Martha M. Sarah L. and Jessie C. each - five hundred dollars one half in one year and the balance in two years after my decease. And on condition further - my three daughters above mentioned shall occupy and control the house in which I now