Last Will & Testament

of
Anna H. Jones

Probated January Term 1902

Bristol Tennessee

January 16th 1902

I hereby state that I am in my right mind and in full possession of all mental faculties necessary to make this, my last will.

I hereby will that my son-in-law Ed Lockett act as Administrator of my estate and that he be not required to give bond.

I will that my property located at corner of Broadway and Godinger Streets Knoxville Tenn pass to the ownership of my son Herman Jones to be his to have and to hold forever.

My desire is that he occupy same as a residence as long as needed, but he has full power to rent or sell same, as he may deem best, and use proceeds for the education and benefit of his child or children.

I will that any money due me on what we call the Callahan note, now held for me by Mr Leo W. Peters of Knoxville, be collected as soon as practicable, and that the proceeds be divided equally between my grandchildren George Ed Sallie Fort.

I will that any other money or effects of which I may die possessed, together with the full amount of my Life Insurance Policy, be collected as soon as possible and that the proceeds of same be placed at disposal of my daughter Katie Jones Lockett to be used by her at her own best judgment dictates.

Witness my signature to this, my last will.
Signed: Anna H. Jones

Attest: Mrs F. J. Blanchard
Sue Sayers Reynolds

Last Will & Testament

of
John Spokes decd

Probated February Term 1902.

In the name of God Amen. I John Spokes of the County of Sullivan and State of Tennessee, being of sound mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of life, do therefore make, ordain publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all others by me at any time made.

First

I direct that my funeral expenses and all my lawful debts be paid as soon after my death as possible, out of any money that I may die possessed of, or may first come into the hands of my executor.

SECOND

I give and devise to my sister wife Elizabeth the farm known as the First farm, upon which I now live, containing 87 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres, it being the same farm that I purchased of Mr. L. V. Williams during the term of her natural life together with the rents and profits thereof, and all the personal property thereon, such as horses cattle, sheep, dogs agricultural and mechanical implements, and all the household and kitchen furniture articles etc. in fact if it is my will and so direct that during her life she have said farm and all its belongings, and use and enjoy it in any way she may deem proper, except she is not to sell or dispose of any of said land and only so much of the personal property as may be necessary for her comfortable maintenance and support. Provided of course that the surplus grain and other products of the farm, as well as the surplus stock may be sold by her and the proceeds according therfrom disposed of as she may deem proper.

THIRD

After the death of my wife it is my will and so devise and direct, that my son Robert have the said farm with all and singular the tenements hereditaments and appurtenances to the same belonging or in any wise appertaining, with the stock implements household and kitchen furniture thereon, and the rents and profits thereof. And while I do not wish to limit or in any way encumber the devise to Robert, which is made to him absolutely and in fee simple, yet I desire simply to indicate my preference which is that he hold said farm as long as he lives and if he then makes any disposition of it, other than that the law would make, that he give it to some member of the family. Though this preference so expressed is in no way to hamper or encumber the devise, if he should not choose to be influenced by it.

FOURTH

It is my will and I do direct that my son Robert have a home on the Tins Farm during his wife's life, if he desires it. That is that he have the right to bed and board there, free of charge, as I have no doubt that this clause be consistent and perfectly agreeable to my wife. And this clause is not intended to interfere with the second clause or in anyway limit or restrict it.

FIFTH

No provision is made herein for my son Charles and my daughter Margaret Waller, wife of James Waller, for the reason that I have heretofore provided for them as fully as I intend to do, having given to Charles the farm on which he lives, and to my daughter Margaret a considerable sum of money which was invested in the farm upon which she now lives, besides other property given her at various times.

SIXTH

Lastly, I do nominate and appoint my said son Robert, to be my executor, and I excuse and release him from executing bond as such.

In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name on this the twelfth day of May A.D. 1883

John Sproles

The above written instrument was subscriber by the said John Sproles in our presence and acknowledged by him to each of us:

And he at the same time published and declared the above instrument so subscribed to be his last will and testament; and we at the testators request, and in his presence, have signed our names as witnesses hereto. This May 12th 1883

J. R. Sill
Chas E. Doss

The foregoing written instrument was proven in open Court by the oaths of J. J. Phillips, J. J. Kirkpatrick and Joe Hamilton, on this the 13 day of Feb., 1902, and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged, declared and decreed to be the last will and testament of John Sproles, deceased and ordered to be recorded in the Book of Wills.
