The Last Will and Testament of Thomas L. Lady, of Thomas L. Lady of Sound Mind and Memory, do hereby make my last Will & Testament hereby revoking all former Wills.

My First desire is to present myself, Soul and body, to my Heavenly Father.

I Will & bequeath to my wife Hancy J. Lady, all of my property both real and personal of every kind, class and description to have and to hold as long as she remains my widow, for her support, use and comfort.

I desire secondly, that when my wife rights as shown in the above clause shall have terminated, that all of my property, real & personal shall go to my son David Embree Lady, except I will to my adopted daughter Annie Ethel Lady, one half valued at $1000 and one half valued at $500 and I desire that in the event this property should have to be distributed before Annie Ethel is of age that it shall be delivered to H. A. Robinson as trustee until she shall have reached her majority and in the event of her death before she has reached her majority said two thirds of property given to Annie Ethel shall go to her brother, James Hammit.

I hereby appoint H. A. Robinson as my Executor
