Last Will & Testament
of
H. C. Fain, deceased. Probated Sept Term 1907

I, H. C. Fain, of Sullivan County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills by me at any time made.

II

I direct that all my just debts, including funeral expenses, be paid as soon after my death as possible, out of any moneys that I may then possess or of that may first come into the hands of my Executor.

III

I give and bequeath to my brother, Nicholas Fain, for life, should he survive me, all my personal property, of every kind and description, after the payment of my debts, as directed in paragraph II, after the termination of his life estate therein said personal property shall be disposed of as herein by me directed.

III

I will and devise to my said brother, Nicholas Fain, for life, should he survive me, all my real estate, consisting of an undivided one-half interest in a tract of land on which he and I now live, situated in the 18 civil district of Sullivan County, Tennessee, containing three hundred and forty (344) acres, more or less, and bounded on the North by the lands of James Bond, on the East by the lands of the heirs of Wm. Boy, deceased, and R. H. Sanders,
