I give my soul to God to be disposed of according to his good pleasure

As to the property which it has pleased God to bless

I here by give my said Executors, if necessary any full power and authority to sell any or all of my real estate at public or private sale and for cash in hand or on time as they may think best, so as to pay all of my just debts and make a deed or deeds for the same when said sale is paid for in full and make deeds for the same as freely as I could do if I was living and sell the same if they are also empowered to the proceeds of the sales in the settlement of my estate

Now, to divide my property equally among all of my children, I require my Executors when they come to make a final settlement of my estate to charge Mrs. L. A. Moore and Mrs. M. B. Haymond with the amounts so paid to them and then to make the other parties equal to them before any further amount is paid to them or either of them, it being my object that all my children shall equally in my estate after my debts are all paid.

Believing that the law will give my beloved wife Hannah F. I nominate, constitute and appoint my son William M. Wood and my son-in-law W. B.
