Last Will and Testament

E. E. Thorley decd.

Probatd Jan'y Term 1906

I, E. E. Thorley do make and publish this as my last will and testament hereby revoking and striking void all others by me at any time made. First, I direct that my funeral expenses and all my debts the payment of which have not been otherwise provided for by me be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any moneys that I may be possessed of that may first come into the hands of my executor. Secondly, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife M. E. Worley, all the town hold lands and all the personal property of every kind and character commonly used about the dwelling house and incident to housekeeping that I may die seized and possessed of.

I also give and bequeath to my said wife to have and to hold during her natural life all the following real estate, situated in the town of Bluff City, in the 16th Civil District of Sullivan County, Tennessee, consisting of the dwelling house and lots where I now reside also the Living Stable and lot and a ten acre field adjoining the same also adjoining the lands of Hicks and others, (also a small house and lot lying on the East side and fronting on Carter Street opposite the Living Stable lot, an corner of Carter and Smith Streets and it is my will that my executor hereinafter appointed shall manage and control all the said real estate for my said wife during her natural life and according to her for the moneys thereof and to look after the same generally in conjunction with the said property, I also give and bequeath to my said wife in fee simple for her sole and separate use and benefit a certain lot or parcel of land situated in Bluff City, Sullivan County, Tennessee and the East side of Race Street and fronting on the same opposite the Yellow Coffee Sustainer lot, adjoining and on the South side of a lot now owned by J. H. Worley, and having a frontage on said College Street of seventy five feet and extending back to the 210 parallel lines one hundred and fifty feet.

Thirdly, I give and bequeath to my two sons, J. P. Worley and Charles H. Worley, equally all the personal property I have in connection with the Living Stable, I am now keeping in Bluff City, Tennessee, including all my horses, wagons, hacks, buggies, and all other vehicles, harness, saddles, all kinds of feed, including hay, fodder, straw, oats, corn, also all farming implements, and it is my will that my said son, J. P. Worley, who is hereinafter named and appointed as my executor shall take charge of said Living, outfit and business including all said personal property and run, manage and control the same for himself and my said son Charles Worley, disposing of such as he may think best from time to time and buying such as he may think advisable for the best interest of the business and run the business in a general way until the said Charles Worley becomes twenty one years of age and spend the said Charles part of the proceeds of the said business or so much as may be necessary for his maintenance and education and account to him for any remainders of said earnings or proceeds belonging to him when he shall become twenty one years of age.

Fourthly, It is my will and I so direct that after the death of my said wife, that the said real estate herein before bequeathed to her during her natural life be divided among my children as follows:

To my son, J. H. Worley, two acres of land on the west side or extension of the said ten acre field above described, and this is to be his full share of my real estate, he having, him therefore at once provided for.

To my daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Worley, four acres of said ten acre field to be laid off on the South side of the said field along the line of A. J. Hicks and wife, and extending from Carter Street between parallel lines to the piece or portion above laid off on J. H. Worley.

To my son, R. D. Worley, one acre of said ten acre field adjoining the piece laid off to Mrs. Gertrude Worley, and extending between parallel lines from Carter Street to the portion laid off to the said J. H. Worley, and lot owned by my said wife as above bequeathed to her, and he having him otherwise provided for out of my estate, it is my wish that he receive no more of my real estate.

To my son, Charles, I give and bequeath after the death of his mother, all the remainders of the aforesaid ten acre field after laying off the said portions as above set forth, to my said son, J. H. Worley, my daughter, Gertrude Worley, and my son, R. D. Worley.

I also give and bequeath to my said son Charles after the death of his mother, the aforesaid Living Stable and lot on which it stands, and all buildings and sheds in connection therewith also the dwelling house and lots where I now reside, being the corner on Carter and Cedar Streets and including all the lots fronting on Cedar Street from Carter Street to the lot known as the E. D. Mearns lot, also the small house and lot fronting on Carter Street opposite the Living Stable and being the corner lot on Carter and Smith Streets.

I also give and bequeath to my said daughter Gertrude Worley, the lot known as the E. D. Mearns lot adjoining the lot now owned by M. D. Harmon and wife on the West and the lots above devised to my son Charles on the East and fronting on Cedar Street, this lot is now in litigation by the Chancery Court at Blountville, and if gained and held by me, my said daughter's interest is to have the same, but if lost in the suit it is not my intention that she be turned out of my estate for such loss. It is not my intention that my son J. P. Nolley shall have any of my real estate which I now own because he has heretofore been otherwise provided for.

Fifth. It is my will that all property both personal real and mixed, of which I may be seized and possessed or in any way am entitled to and which I have not herebefore disposed of, be equally divided among my children or in case either be dead, then his part to go to his lawful heirs.

Lastly, I do hereby nomination and appoint my son J. P. Nolley as my Executor and excuse him from giving bond.

In witness whereof I do to this my will, let my hand this the 24th day of November 1905-

E. S. Nolley.

Signed and published in my presence and we have subscribed our names hereto in the presence of the testator and at his request. This 24th day of November 1905-

C. C. Brown.
R. H. Hulse

The foregoing written instrument was proven in said Court by the oaths of C. C. Brown, and R. H. Hulse, subscribing witnesses thereto on this the 11th day of January 1906, and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged, declared and decreed by the Court to be the last will and testament of E.
