James Walker,
Last Will.

State of Tennessee,
Randolph County.

I, James Walker, of said county and state; being of sound mind and disposing memory and in view of the uncertainty of life, do make, ordain and publish, this my last will and Testament, that is to say:

Item 1st After all my just debts and obligations if any, are paid, I give bequeath and devise to my wife, Ellen Walker, in trust for the uses and purposes hereinafter declared and set forth, all of my estate, real, personal and mixed, wherever situated; and she, as trustee, shall have and hold all the same for the use, benefit and behoof of herself and my children, she and they to share equally and alike - her share to be equal to a child's share.

Item 2nd And my said wife and Trustee, Ellen Walker, shall have full power and authority to control and manage all said estate and property, as she may deem best for the interest of herself and said children, and to use the issues and profits of the same accordingly to her best discretion, in maintaining herself and them, and in educating the children.

Item 3rd In case she shall see proper, my said Trustee, Ellen Walker is also hereby authorized and empowered to sell, or exchange any of the lands or other property, which I have bequeathed and devised to her by this will, and to make the requisite conveyance of title; and also to re-invest the proceeds in such other property, real or personal, as she may think for the best interest of herself and children; but in all cases in which she shall make such exchange or re-invest in other property, I desire and direct that she title to the property acquired in this way, to herself as trustee for the use of herself and children according to terms and provisions of the first item of this will.

Item 4th The property that my daughters take under this will shall be to their sole separate use and benefit, freed and discharged from the contract, debt or liabilities of their husbands, should they marry.

Item 5th It is further my will and desire, that when my children shall respectively attain to the age of twenty-one years, and when my daughter shall marry, though not of age, my Trustee shall give off to each of my said children, his or her share and portion of my estate, my daughter share to be to their sole, separate use, as before stated.

Item 5th I hereby appoint my wife, Ellen Walker, Executor of this my last Will, and reposing in her the most implicit confidence, I desire and direct that she shall not be required to give bond or security, either as such Executor or as Trustee, and that she shall not be required as Trustee to settle with the County Court, or its Clerk.

Item 6th In case my wife, the said Ellen Walker, should die from this will, I still desire that she shall be my Executor and Trustee, and as such Trustee to have all the authority and power over the property given to my children, conferred on her by the foregoing Items of this will.

This the 21st day of September 1886.

M. F. Bigham
last Will.

The will of M. F. Bigham.

Kennett, Tenn.
Sept 22, 1900.

Being this day of sound mind, and knowing the uncertainty of human life, I feel it my duty to write my will and Testament.

I give, bequeath and devise my estate and property as follows:

To my daughter, Virginia L. Davenport. I give $500 in money (Five Hundred Dollars in money). To use for her benefit during her life time. No one else has any part in the interest. It is all hers so long as she lives. At her death the original $500 Dollars must go to her half Brother and his children. (Dr. H. M. Bigham.)

To my Matthews Grand Children, I give and devise my interest in the farm known as the Bigham place.

After my daughter V. L. Davenport has her interest divided off, the remainder is mine. The farm is near Calhoun Tenn. I wish it divided equally between the four Grand Children (J. Haring Verbeide, Matthews, Tom Matthews Children of my oldest son A. H. Matthews, Senlah Patterson, the Daughter of Dr. Matthews my second son).

I wish Tom to have my Bed and Stead. It is in my room at J. L. Davenport.

To my son W. M. Bigham I give my land in Arkansas, all the notes found in my possession and all the money if any, after paying the burial expenses. What cattle I have I give them to him.

$600 Dollars must be deducted from those notes for little Willie Bigham my grandson. The remainder I give to his Father. Also the lounge and sewing machine I give my Grand son Willie Bigham. The six hundred Dollars I leave to little Willie Bigham. I wish the money placed on interest and the interest added to the principal every year till he is 18 years old. Then I wish the money used to furnish his education if he and his Father think best it should be used that way. I wish the money used entirely for his own benefit.

The rest of my goods and Chattels I give to my Children V. L. Davenport and W. M. Bigham to divide between themselves as they wish. I wish my son to act as guardian for his son Willie.

I also appoint my son W. M. Bigham as Administrator without Bondmen.

Robert A. Bramble's Last Will

In The Name of God Amen: I, Robert A. Bramble of Covington, Tipton County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, realizing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, and desiring to dispose of my worldly possessions, in a manner I think right and proper, do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby making null and void all other wills by me at any time made.

Item 1. I commit my soul to God who gave it.

Item 2. I direct that all my just debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any monies that may first come into the hands of my executor.

Item 3. I will and devise to my son A. A. Bramble all the real, mixed and personal property of which I may die seized and possessed, and the real estate I now owned by me, being my house and lot in Covington, Tenn. My reason for making my said son, A. A. Bramble, my sole devisee and legatee under this my will, is because I have heretofore advanced to my other son, Calvin Bramble, various sums and amounts, etc. etc. and for the further reason that my said son, A. A. Bramble is looking after and caring for me during my old or declining years, and because he expressed a desire to look after me during the remaining days I may have on earth, and because I know that I can depend upon him if I should get sick or disabled.

Item 4. I hereby nominate, and appoint my said son, A. A. Bramble executor of this will, and he is hereby excused from entering into bond and making settlements with the Court of this State, as is directed by statute.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand this Aug. 4th 1909.

Robert A. ^{his} Bramble.

Signed, sealed and delivered in our presence and in the presence of the testator, and at the request of the testator we here signed our names as witnesses to said will on this Aug. 4th 1909.

Lettie L. Rutherford

Last Will.

I, Lettie L. Rutherford of Covington, Tipton County, Tenn., make this my last will. I give, devise and bequeath my estate and property as follows, that is to say:

To my son, Walter Rutherford, I bequeath the sum of seven hundred dollars ($700.00) he having received from me heretofore, as advances, the sum of thirteen hundred and thirty-three dollars ($1333.00).

To my daughter, Mamie Archer, I bequeath the sum of two thousand dollars ($2000.00) all my bedding, bed clothes (excepting two featherbeds), wearing apparel and pictures, to her own separate use and benefit, free and discharged from all debts and marital rights of her present or any future husband.

To Gladys Archer, my grand daughter, I bequeath the lot of furniture in my room that I occupy as a sleeping room, one feather bed and all my other ware; and to Margaret Archer, my grand daughter, I bequeath one feather bed.

The two houses and lots, located on the north side of Hill Street, Covington, Tenn., I desire and direct shall be sold by the executor, named herein, as soon after my demise as he may deem practicable, and in his judgment, to the best advantage; and also he is directed to sell all other personal property I may die possessed of except stock or shares of stock in the Tipton County Building and Loan Association, which he shall collect from said Association, when said shares shall have matured, and apply the proceeds arising therefrom; first, to the indebtedness I may owe at the time of my death; second, to the distribution to amounts I have bequeathed in this instrument indicated in the beginning thereof.

It is my desire that my executor shall set apart a sum of money out of the amount left over after the bequests herein have been paid to the beneficiaries named, for the purpose of purchasing a burial lot in Myford Cemetery and erecting an inexpensive stone at my burial place.

It is further my desire that my executor shall, after complying with the directions above given, if there be a sum of money left over, place the amount in the hands of a guardian of Gladys and Mary Louise Archer, my grand daughters, who shall loan said sum out and apply the interest arising therefrom to the education of said minor children, and when they arrive at the age of twenty one year respectively they shall receive an equal portion of said sum.

I appoint S. A. Wright of Tipton County, Tennessee, executor of this my will.

In witness whereof, I have signed and sealed this instrument and published and declared the same as and for my last will, at Covington, Tenn., on this the 3rd day of Jan. 1910.

L. L. Rutherford (Seal).

The said Lettie L. Rutherford at Covington, Tenn. on said day signed and sealed this instrument, and published and declared the same as and for her last will. And we, at her request and in her presence, and in the presence of each other, hereunto written our names as subscribing witnesses.

Last Will and Testament of Martha Jane Taylor

I, Martha Jane Taylor being of sound mind and memory do make and publish this as my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills made by me at any time.

1st I desire that all my just debts be paid as soon after my death as possible, out of any monies of which I may die seized and possessed or which may first come into the hands of my executor.

2nd It is my will that all of the property of which I may die seized and possessed both real and personal shall be sold by my executor hereinafter named as soon after my death as practicable upon such terms as to cash or credit as he may deem for the best interest of my legatees and for this purpose, said executor shall have and possess full power and authority to execute all necessary deeds and conveyances without the intervention of any court.

3rd I hereby devise and bequeath to my five children, J. H. Taylor, J. S. Taylor, M. H. Taylor, and my daughters Mrs. Florence Bellinger wife of C. W. Bellinger, and Mrs. Jennie Meadors all of my estate of every kind and character and wherever situated share and share alike. The share of my said daughters from now to be held in trust subject to the conditions, restrictions and stipulations set forth in item four of this my will.

4th I hereby nominate my son, J. H. Taylor as trustee for my said daughters Florence Bellinger, and Jennie Meadors and direct that their respective shares shall be paid over by my executor to said trustee to be held by him in trust and loaned or invested and the interest or income only to be expended annually for the benefit of my said two daughters for and during the period of their natural lives free from the debt, liabilities, contracts, capture and marital rights of any husband or coheir or of them may have. If either one of my said daughters shall die leaving no issue surviving her then it is my will that her share of said trust fund shall be paid over to my other legatees named in item three of said my will in equal shares. In case either or both of my said daughters shall die leaving issue surviving under age of twenty one (21) years, the respective share or shares of such daughter or daughters shall continue to be held in trust by said trustee or his successor or successors until such children shall arrive at the age of twenty one (21) years, when their respective shares shall be paid over to them.

In case none of the children of either one of my said daughters shall live to reach the age of twenty one (21) years, then it is my will that the share which under this will would belong to such child or children if living shall be paid over by said trustee to my other legatees named in item three of this my will share and share alike.

5th In case of the death of my son, J. H. Taylor, before he shall have fully carried out the trust herein above committed to him, it is my will that W. B. Bringle shall be appointed his successor.

6th In case any of my legatees abovenamed shall attack this my will in any Court or seek in any way to have it set aside, then the share which said child would take under this will shall vest in and become the property of such of my legatees as do not join in or take part in such proceedings.

7th I nominate and appoint my friend W. B. Bringle as executor of this my last will and testament, and direct that a good and solvent bond in a sufficient sum shall be executed by him as such executor. In testimony of all the foregoing I have hereunto set my hand on this 1st day of April, 1908.

The Last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Francis Farror. In the Name of God Amen.

I, Elizabeth Francis Farror, being of sound mind and disposing memory, but being in feeble health and desiring the certainty of death, do hereby make and publish this as my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any time made.

First: I direct that my funeral expenses and all of my debts be paid as soon after my death as possible, out of any monies that I may die possessed of, or may first come into the hands of my executor.

Second: I give and bequeath to my beloved husband W. R. Farror, $1000.00 One Thousand Dollars.

Third: The balance of all my estate, consisting of money loaned out and my bank stock in the Farmers Union Bank of Covington, Tennessee, and the Bank of Commerce, of Jackson, Tennessee, I will and bequeath to my two beloved children, Erma Rose and Jesse Rose, share and share alike. And I hereby appoint W. L. Holdford, of Memphis, Tennessee, as trustee for my two children and I desire that he shall take charge of all monies and personal property coming to them under the terms of this will. And that the said W. L. Holdford shall hold said property in trust for the use and benefit of said Erma Rose and Jesse Rose, share and share alike.

And I desire that the said W. L. Holdford will spend such sum or sums of said property as he deems fit and sufficient for the maintenance, education and support of said two children. I desire that the said W. L. Holdford, as trustee, shall use all the funds of my sons Jesse, that it is necessary to keep and maintain the said Jesse in some good and suitable school. And to this end, the said W. L. Holdford is authorized to spend such sum or sums of the corpus of the estate of both of said children, Erma and Jesse Rose, as he deems fit and proper for their education, maintenance and support.

It is my desire that the said trustee shall not see the bank stock that I now own in the above two mentioned banks, but shall use the dividends derived therefrom for the benefit of said two children. But should any contingency arise which would make it proper to sell such bank stock in the judgment of said trustee, he is authorized to sell said stock and convert the same into cash and use it for the benefit of said children as above directed and set out.

Lastly: I do hereby nominate and appoint my beloved husband, W. R. Farror, as executor of this my last will and testament. And having full faith in his integrity to execute this will properly, I excuse my executor from executing any bond.

In witness whereof, I do this my will, at my hand this the 30th day of August, 1909.
Mrs. Elizabeth Francis Farror.

Signed and published in our presence and we have subscribed our names hereto in the presence of the testator and in the presence of each other. This August 30th, 1909.
W. R. Owen.
Laurie Owen.

Covington, Tennessee, April 23, 1910.
I hereby add the following Codicil to my above will made Aug. 30, 1909. And desire said will to be changed as follows:

As to Item 2 I desire my beloved husband to have five hundred dollars instead of One Thousand dollars. I also desire W. E. Rose of Collierville to be my executor and I hereby appoint said W. E. Rose my executor. The foregoing Codicil to my Elizabeth Francis Farrors will was signed by her in our presence and we have hereto subscribed our names at her request.

This April 23, 1910.

Mrs. Elizabeth Francis Farror
Mrs. Lucy Bran
Mrs. Lucy Wilson.

Second Codicil.

Covington, Tennessee, Aug 27, 1910.
I hereby add this additional Codicil to my will of Aug. 30th, 1909. I desire my beloved husband W. R. Farror to have seven hundred dollars instead of five hundred as stated in the Codicil to my will of date April 23, 1910.

(2) I desire R. E. Rose & do hereby appoint him trustee for my two children Emma Rose & Jesse Rose instead of H. L. Waldford heretofore appointed trustee by me. And I empower the said R. E. Rose with all the duties, powers that were conferred on said H. L. Waldford by my will above dated. And said R. E. Rose is to stand in the room & stead of H. L. Waldford.

(3) I give to my two named children my household effects, furniture, wearing apparel &c. And after they & their trustee have selected such household effects of mine as they desire the balance, if any, I give to my beloved husband H. P. Farrow.

(1) X Mrs. Elizabeth Francis Farrow.
The foregoing Codicil to my will was signed by her in our presence and declared by her to be a codicil to her will. And we have hereto subscribed our names at her request.

This Aug. 27, 1910.
