L. Headleston, C.R.

L. ELLIS Testamentary.

State of Tennessee, Union County;

To all Persons Engaged;

Whereas, at our County Court, held for the County of Union at the Court house in Maynardville on the 1st Monday of February 1861. It appeared to the Court that Amos Sharp, late of said County, had died, having first made his last will and testament, in which Jacob Sharp, was appointed Executor and the said Will having been proven and admitted to record, and the said Jacob Sharp, qualified as Executor, It was ordered that L. Ellis Testamentary, Esquire, do we therefore empower the said Jacob Sharp, to take into his possession, all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits, of the said testator, whenever the same may be found, and all just debts of said testator, and all the Legacies specified in

Said Will, well and truly to pay so far as the said goods and chattels, rights and credits may extend, and in case things to administer said goods and chattels, rights and credits according to the tenor of said Will and laws of the said State. Witness L. Headleston Clerk of said County, at office in Maynardville, the 1st Monday of February 1861. L. Headleston Clerk
