County Court July term 1862.

By leave of the Court Alfred Sharp takes upon himself the Execution of the Estate and last will and testament of Mr. Sharp dec'd and entered into bond and receipt as prescribed by law in such cases and takes the oath in open Court, and since there is no will and of course following to wit:—

Know all men by these presents, that we—Alfred Sharp, George W. Lee & A. B. Sharp, are here and jointly bound unto the State of Tennessee, in the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars, for which payment we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, or Administrators, jointly and severally, by these presents, sealed and dated, this 7th day of July, 1862. The Condition of the above obligation is such, that if the above bound Alfred Sharp Executor of the last will and testament of Mr. Sharp dec'd, do well and truly perform the duties enjoined on him by the will of said Mr. Sharp dec'd, and account therefor in such a way and at such time as the said will and laws of the land may require, then this obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

Signed, and acknowledged in open Court July 7/62

Letters Testamentary

State of Tennessee,

To all persons greeting,
 Whereas, at our Court Court, held for the County of Union at the Court House in Maymoundville, on the first Monday of July, 1862 It appeared to the Court that Mr. Sharp late of said Court, has died, having first made his last will and testament, in which Alfred Sharp is appointed Executor, and the said will having been proper and admitted to record, and the said Alfred Sharp, qualified as Executor.

It was ordered, that Letters Testamentary should be given to the said Alfred Sharp, to take into his possession, all and singular the goods and Chattels, rights, and Credits, of the said testator, wherever the same may be found, and all just debts of said testator, and use the legacies specified in said will, free and true to pay, so far as the said goods and Chattels rights and Credits may enter, and in all things to administer said goods and Chattels, rights and Credits, according to the terms of said will and the laws of the land.

Witness L. Huddleston Clerk of said Court at office in Maymoundville the first Monday of July 1862.
