County Court May term 1872.

Be it remembered that at a County Court begun and held at the Court house in the town of Maynardville on the first Monday of May 1872, it being the 6th day of the month, present and presiding were the Worshipful J. L. Lay, Esq. Chairman and George W. Evans and Mrs. Sharp, Justices of the peace when and where the following proceedings were transacted to wit:

By leave of the Court Lewis C. Lay, came into open Court and took upon himself the Administratorship of William Lay, deceased with the Will annexed and entered into bond with Security according to law and was then qualified. Which bond is in the words and figures to wit:

Know all men by these presents that we Lewis C. Lay, and W. J. Lay, and T. H. Cook are held and firmly bound unto the State of Tennessee in the penal sum of three thousand Dollars, for the payment of which we bind ourselves our heirs, executors, or Administrators jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed and dated this 6th day of May 1872.

The Condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Lewis C. Lay, Administrator, with the Last Will and Testament of William Lay, deceased annexed do well and truly perform the duties imposed on him by the Will of said William Lay, deceased and account thereof at such away and at such time as the said Will and laws of the land may require then this obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

Signed Sealed & acknowledged in open Court May 6th 1872.
