To the worshipful County Court of Union County Tennessee. August term 1882.

Bery Ellison administrator of the estate of Elija Ellison deceased begs leave to Report, as follows.
I was appointed for the purpose of drawing one payment of Pension money, due at my mother's death, but under the requirement of the Pension law, the Pension agent would not pay the same only on Proof of the cost of her last sickness & burial & amount of Property &c, &c. And so the heirs agreed to pay all of said expenses rather than to be at the trouble & expense of arranging the same. Hence I have not received any thing for said estate nor I will not. There are no other effects, I ask the Court to take this as a final conclusion of the whole matter.
