State of Tennessee Union County -
 Known all men by these presents that I, John Walters of the County of Union and State of Tennessee, being of sound mind and memory, and calling to mind the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, for the purpose of disposing of the worldly effects with which it has pleased God to bless me, according to my wishes, have and do hereby make, ordain, and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any time heretofore made -

First - I desire that my funeral expenses and all my just debts be paid, as soon after my death as possible, out of any money of mine or hereafter at my death or coming into the hands of my executor after my death -

Secondly - I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Sarah Walters one third of all my lands of which I may be the legal or equitable owner at my death, to be laid off so as to include the dwelling house, smokehouse, Stables and other buildings attached, and also so as to include the spring and meadow, to have to hold the same during her natural life; and to have laid off to her by my executor, who is authorized to get the County Surveyor and any disinterested free holder to lay the same off or assist him in doing so -

Thirdly - It is my desire and I hereby direct that my negro man or woman be sold by my executor after my death upon the usual terms of such sales and I hereby further desire and direct that the sum of five hundred dollars either out of the price of said negro, or out of any other money arising from my estate, be put out at interest annually, for the use of my wife Sarah Walters, during her natural life, and that the yearly interest arising thereon be paid to my said wife by my executor during the natural life of my said wife -

Fourthly - I give and bequeath to my daughter Nancy Malinda Kaynes a piece of land adjoining I have already deeded to her running down the branch and to include half of the timbered land between her said place and my old line, and no more, to be laid off as nearly square with the said land deeded to my said daughter as the nature of the case will admit, to be for the separate use and benefit of my said daughter without the control of her husband Campbell Kaynes -

Fifthly - I give and bequeath to my son Pleasant Walters and to his heirs and assigns forever in fee simple, all the lands of which I may be the legal or equitable owner at my death, except the piece of timbered land given to my said daughter, but subject to the incumbrance of the life estate hereinbefore given to my wife Sarah Walters as in the bequest to her is directed -

Sixthly - It is my wish, and I hereby direct that all my personal property of every kind be sold by my executor, upon the terms and in the manner such sales are usually made, and that all debts coming to me be collected by my executor as he reasonably can, and I hereby direct that the proceeds of said sale, debts collected, and money on hand at my death or arising from my personal estate in any way, after paying all my debts, and all expenses, be disposed of as follows, by my executor, namely to my son Pleasant Walters the one third, and to my grand children, the children of my daughter Lucinda Kaynes, one third, and to my grandchildren, the children of my daughter Nancy Malinda Kaynes, one third, and the part so directed to be given to my said grandchildren to be paid into the hands of Guardians regularly appointed for them -

Seventhly - I further give and bequeath to my said wife one horse, heath, a cow and calf, five head of sheep, ten stock hogs and a sow and sow and pigs, a Ride Saddle - three beds and bedsteads and suitable furniture, one table, and as many of my cooking vessels as she may need or wish to keep, and also six chairs and one chest -

I also give and bequeath to my said wife Sarah Walters, enough of the corn, wheat, and grain and hay on hand at my death to do her for the year after my death, to be laid off to her by my executor, or by any three disinterested householders whom he may select to lay the same off for her -

I also give and bequeath to my said wife Sarah Walters all the chickens, ducks and geese on hand at my death, and also the sum of twenty five dollars to be paid to her by my executor for her store to enable her to buy necessaries -

All the matters given to my said wife are hereby expressly excepted out of the articles directed to be sold - and the five hundred dollars directed to be put at interest for the use of my wife is also hereby excepted out of the monies herein before directed to be divided and paid out between my son and grand children, and the said five hundred dollars after the death of my said wife shall be divided into three equal parts and one third given to my son Pleasant Walters, one third to my grand children the children of my daughter Lucinda Kaynes and the other third to my grand children, the children of my daughter Nancy Malinda Kaynes -

Servanthly - I hereby appoint Walter R. Evans of the County of Claiborne, my executor, to carry into effect this my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand and seal this 13th day of August 1857
