they were twenty one years of age the sum of one hundred dollars for each year in the same locality with me and at that rate for any shorter period when they shall appear to continue as long as they shall render such service locality with me until my death estate and to be charged ^{on} my office

real estate if the personal should not be sufficient at my death

Third I give devise and bequeath to My three sons Adolphus S. Charles S. and Hiram Gilbert three fifths of my remaining estate real and personal whatsoever and where soever to have to them absolutely in equal shares as tenants in common & in fee simple but belief of allowing to have and to hold one
