The Last Will and Testament of Phileas Pearson deceased

State of Tennessee Warren County May the 29th 1850, I Phileas Pearson do this day make my Last Will & testament, I therefore in the first place give my spirit to God that gave it me and my body to be decently entored in the tomb I therefore give to my daughter Polly Chastan all I possess in the house or out of doors with one hundred dollars that I am to have of John M. Randolph provided he should gain a suit at law for some Negro servants that belongs to my Father's Estate in the Court of Chancery in the Town of McMinnville.
 I say I give it to my daughter Polly Chastan, because it is Will & because she has taken care of me in my afflictions, and I therefore appoint my daughter Polly Chastan & John M. Randolph as Executors to said will
