Fifthly, I give and bequeath to my daughter Magaly Wamtham one dollar. I do hereby nominate and appoint Richard P. Lane, my executor. In witness whereof, I do hereby, to this my last will, set my hand and seal this the 10th day of May 1858. Rufus J. Benson

I, Russel Brown, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following.

First I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Nancy, five hundred dollars in money, & my wish is that said money be placed in the hands of some disinterested man to be selected by her, at interest, and if the interest is not sufficient to support her, she is authorized to draw at any time when her necessities require it, a sum sufficient to support her. Also one Negro woman named Carter, aged about twenty-five years, together with a horse called & known by the name of John Locke together with all such household & kitchen furniture as she may think she needs and the balance if any, to be sold at the sale. Secondly, my will and wish is, that all the rest of my real and personal property of all descriptions after my death, be sold in twelve months credit, and the proceeds be equally divided among my legal heirs - and wish all my notes and accounts to be collected and equally divided as above, except the heirs of my son Rufus B. Brown - is that said I wish in the first place for all of his just debts to be paid out of his part of my estate, and the balance of his part be equally divided between his daughters Nancy B. Brown, and Mary A. and Sarah A. Hollister, the two last named are illegitimate children. Thirdly, I wish the portion that my daughter will inherit to go to them and the heirs of their body and I also wish and desire, that a house be built over the grave of myself and my wife after our deaths, and that a sum be secured, sufficient therefor, before a distribution of my estate is made. And I find that I have advanced to my son Rufus B. Brown, one hundred dollars - to William one hundred and sixty dollars - and to Henry, one hundred and twenty-five dollars - and to David, one hundred and sixty dollars - and to John Seelye dollars - and to Asa Brown one hundred and thirty-five dollars - and to Calvin B. two hundred and twenty dollars - and Thomas J. one hundred and eighty-five dollars - and to my daughter Katherine Stead twenty-five dollars - and to Sarah M. Farlow the same - and to John Haley, the same - and to Elizabeth Brown, the same - and to Charles Price, one hundred dollars - and my will is, that in the distribution of my estate, that each one of the legacies herein an equal portion thereof taking into consideration of their arrears. And I also wish and desire, that the property called to my wife, I wish her to have the use and enjoyment of, during her natural life, and after her death, I want what is left thereof to be sold and distributed in like manner as I have directed the balance of my property. And I hereby appoint my two sons C. B. Brown and George Brown my sole executors of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made.
