

John Bacon's Will (of Lear)

Finance off of the same I now live on during her widowhood - Fourth in case my wife should many I direct my property and real estate to go to the use of my son Joseph M Bacon also what other means I may have left.

Having some personal property undivided, one Bay mare worth one Hundred Dollars is to be divided equally between myself and Elijah Bacon is to have my interest in said Bay mare for fifty Dollars also one gray colt worth Twenty Dollars which is to go to my wife for so much Elijah is to have or for ten Dollars my sister Jane Hill is to have ten Dollars in money or by paying my Executor ten Dollars is to have a roan colt one Cream mare is to be sold by my Executor either private or public, the proceeds to be divided between my Executor and Elijah - Elijah is to have one fourth of the wheat - one red heifer - one yearling heifer is to go to Elijah - I do hereby nominate and appoint John W Hunt my Executor in witness whereof I do to this my will set my hands and seal this 14th day of July 1858.

John Bacon Seal

Signed sealed & published in our presence we have subscribed our names hereto in presence of Testators this 14th day of July 1858 -
Witness
Jeremiah Hillson
J. P. Hartman

The foregoing will was proven in open court by Jeremiah Hillson and J. P. Hartman at March Term 1858, both being subscribing witnesses thereto and the same ordered to be recorded, and John W Hunt the Executor named therein appeared in open court gave bond a proper security was qualified as the law directs

Deborah Hoop Clerk

Mary E. J. Jordons Will

State of Tennessee
Washington County
We the undersigned were present at the death of Mary E. J. Jordan and heard her make the following bequest (the day before death at the residence of Melinda Patton when she had been confined more than ten days) that it was her will and desire that her sister Melinda Jordan and Jane Jordan take charge of her child and Negro girl Emaline and if it should happen that the said child should die or miss she gave said girl Emaline to her sister above named
This 20th day of February 1858

Mary J. Jordan
Jacob A. Aard

The foregoing will was proven in part at May Term 1858 by Mary J. Jordan one of the subscribing witnesses thereto and at July Term 1858 by Jacob A. Aard the other subscribing witness thereto according to law and the same ordered to be recorded
Henry Hoop Clerk

Silas Rattliff's Will

In the name of God Amen.
I Silas Rattliff of the State of Tennessee, Washington County being in bad health but of sound mind and memory but calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed to all men to die do hereby make this instrument of writing my last will and testament in the following manner:

First, I will that Robert Rattliff my son and Jane Rattliff my daughter have all my cattle hogs and sheep and all my working tools also all my household and kitchen furniture I will to my daughter Jane my cupboard and furniture, also I will unto my children namely, Sabitha Rattliff the wife of James Prier, Nancy Rattliff, Fehs Rattliff wife of John Smith, Mary Rattliff wife of Charles Bond, Silas Rattliff, Eby Rattliff, Reuben Rattliff, Robt Rattliff, Jane Rattliff, and James Rattliff, also the heirs of Alexander and Mary Soble to share equal in my lands at my death and the death of my wife, I also require that Silas Rattliff, Eby Rattliff, Robert Rattliff, Jane Rattliff, and James Rattliff take good care and provide for all the necessaries of life that we may stand in want of as long as we both man and wife and by Robert Rattliff and James Rattliff