

Henry Botts Will.

Our say will is that my son a boy James King to have a horse saddle and bridle, one galung ave and scythe and scythe set of my estate.

5th My will is that the children of my daughter Elizabeth and my daughter Sarah Byble have all the moveable or personal property that may be in hands at the death of my wife, so as to let Richard children have one half of it. And I make and ordain my son John a Joseph Botts Executor of this my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof the said Henry Botts have to the my last will and Testament set my hand and seal the day and year above written signed sealed published and declared by me Henry Botts Seal and declaration of the said Henry Botts the testator in the presence of us who were present at the time of signing and sealing thereof
Aba Bayles
Wm R Bayles

Reuben Bayles ³ The foregoing will was proven in open Court of the City of Aba Bayles, Wm R Bayles and Reuben Bayles subscribing witnesses thereto at Term 18 and recorded Sophannah Bradley's Will.

I Jonathan Bradley of the County of Washington and State of Louisville being of sound mind, memory and understanding, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner following, that is to say:—
I give and bequeath to my wife Elizabeth Bradley all my real and personal estate consist as follows, one mare, saddle and bridle, one small wagon, gun one milk cow, tether head horse, and the present growing crop of corn and also the crop of oats that is in the barn and all my house hold and kitchen furniture, this is for my wife to have to subsist on during her life, and at her death she can dispose of it whom she pleases.

Jonathan Bradley Seal

Sign, seal, publish and declare by the said Jonathan Bradley as and for his last Will and Testament in the presence of us who were at his request hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses thereto in the presence of the said testator

September 6th 1839

*This No Conch
Joseph Odorow*

The foregoing Will was proven in open Court by the oaths of Thomas McConochie and Joseph Odorow the subscribers before them at the term 18 and recorded.

Jackson Hale's Will.

I Jackson Hale being sound in mind and sense of perfect understand ing, do publish and make this my last Will and Testament in form and substance thus is to say:—

First—My will is that my body be decently interred in the grave and committed my soul to the hands of God who gave it.

Secondly—My will is that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of any money that I may die possessed of or as soon as any may come into the hands of my Executor.

Thirdly—My will is that my beloved wife Elizabeth shall have my mare, bridle and saddle and all my house hold and kitchen furniture of every kind.

Fourthly—My will is that the rest of my stock of every kind be sold and all my farming tools and utensils and all the grain & every kind be distributed equally between my wife Elizabeth and my daughter Harriet and my son Eliphalet, share and share alike.

Fifthly—My will is and I do hereby set forth power in my Executor and authority to dispose of my real estate in such manner as full and large a sum now in every respect as I would do myself if living.

Sixthly—My will is that the proceeds arising from the sale of my land shall be divided between my wife Elizabeth, and my daughter Harriet, and my son Eliphalet share and share alike.

Seventhly—My will is that my beloved wife shall go and live with or at her father and that she is to keep and rear my children if she remains my widow, but if she should marry again then it is my will that my Executor shall take my son and youngster and rear them.

Eighthly—and lastly my will is and I do hereby nominate and appoint James McConochie as my Executor for which I prepare this writing at my hand and affix my seal this 30 of April 1839

Jackson Hale Seal

Signed and sealed in presence of of day and date above written

Alison Hale ³ The foregoing will was proven in open Court by the oaths of Thomas Galway and Joseph McConochie ³ before subscribing witnesses thereto at term 18 and recorded.

William Reischel's Will.

I William Reischel do make and publish this as my last Will and Testament hereby revoking and making void all other Wills by me at any time made.

First—I direct that my beloved slaves and my negro