

James Bryles Sr Will.

their possession being two hundred and forty six acres in the whole amounting to eleven hundred and seventy dollars each for their respective shares. To my son Samson here as what already has been given to him, I give and bequeath fifty acres of land being the half of one hundred acres I hold in partnership with said Mark to whom the other fifty acres belong by his own right and title.

It is further my desire and request that my executors heirs or administrators do execute a legal and valid deed to Samuel Mark, if not previously done for his above mentioned fifty acres of land which are not to be considered as any part of his wife's legacy.

Having thus as near as circumstances will permit and in consideration of the time they have served me, made my son equal in the share of my estate I hereby nominate and appoint my wife Ellen as the sole executrix of this my will and my sons Jacob and Ephraim I desire and request to act and assist their mother, in arranging and fulfilling this will and I give these my executors to execute the accompayning schedule for the organizing my daughters as already directed, and after the 69 acres of land have been sold either publicly and so privately as may best suit for that purpose if any property should remain for a second division among my daughters I should prefer them to divide it among themselves without having recourse to public sale.

Finally I hereby declare this to be my last will and Testament hereby revoking all others of a prior date. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 17th day of July 1803.

James J. Bryles Sr

Signed sealed and acknowledged in presence of Joseph Reed Jacob F. Bryles Angel Graham

The foregoing Will was proven in open Court by the oaths of Jacob F. Bryles and Angel Graham before me the undersigned Judge of the Court Term 1803

Hugh Campbells Will.

Hugh Campbell of Washington County State of Tennessee being of sound mind and memory do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following.

First I give and bequeath to my lawful wife Susy Campbell the plantation or tract of land whereon I now live to have and to hold the same to her and her heirs and assigns forever, and my three daughters Polly, Sally, and Lucilla Campbell is to have their respective shares of the plantation with their mother and my son James New Campbell to have his share of the land, and my son James New Campbell

Hugh Campbells Will.

may make such further provision for him out of the land as she may think proper I also give to wife Susy Campbell all the personal property of what nature whatsoever found that I may die possessed of after paying my just debts and funeral expences, to her heirs and assigns forever. I also give to my son James Campbell the plantation that I bought of James Neaves containing one hundred and sixty three acres to him and his heirs and assigns forever, and he is to pay to my daughter Margaret Carson one horse and one hundred dollars in money, the money to be paid within twelve months from this date and also to pay to my daughter Nancy Neaves one hundred dollars within eighteen months from this date. I also give and bequeath to my son Brock Campbell the plantation that I bought of Samuel Biddle containing one hundred and sixty acres to have and to hold the same to him and his heirs and assigns forever, and he is to lift my obligation from Biddle that I gave for the payment of the land which is due on the twenty fifth of December next and he is to have the use of one hundred dollars that I have in the hands of Mrs. Ballouay for two years and then to pay the same over to the estate for the purpose of paying my debts if needed. And lastly I hereby constitute and appoint my son Brock Campbell and my friend John Mc Crauford executors of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking other wills by me made. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and offered my seal in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty five and February the twenty first.

Hugh Campbell Seal

signed sealed and published by the Testator to be his last Will and Testament in presence of us who have hereunto set our names and witnessed at this request James C. Johnson William R. Johnson Mrs. M. Hercules

The foregoing will was proven in open Court by the oaths of William R. Johnson and Mrs. M. Hercules at Term 18

Jacob Browns Will.

Jacob Brown of the County of Washington and State of Tennessee being weak of body but of sound mind, memory and judgment, do calling to mind the certainty of death, do make and publish his my last will and testament in manner and form following. I will that all my just debts be paid out of the first money that comes into the hands of my executors after my decease. It is my will that my

260
Jacob Browns Will.

tion whom I now live supposed to be one hundred and thirty acres all the rents and profits of said plantation during her alibacy or widow state - also her choice of my cows my horse mare, two haws and furniture bedstead, &c. also my clock, cupboard, bureau, kitchen & cupboard furniture, one sow and pigs, geese, ducks, still and tubs, with whatever grain and provender, meat &c. which may be on hand also my large brass Kettle, and at her death or marriage all the above named furniture and property to be sold by my executor and the money equally divided among my grand children that may be inhering at my decease, that is the children of my son John if he has any, my son George Brown, my daughter Mary ~~Woods~~ and my daughter Nancy Ball's children, my sons Jacob Brown & Myly Browns children not included.

2nd - It is my will that my son Jacob have and enjoy the land that I lately made him a deed to supposed to contain forty nine and one half acres.

3rd - I give and bequeath to my son Myly have the house wherein John Satts now lives and that he have the use of fifteen acres first for during his mothers life time or while she may remain single and my old gun, the fifteen acres of land lying where the house stands and at his mothers death or marriage to have half of the plantation wherein I now live in quantity and quality.

4th - I give and bequeath to my son Richard the rifle gun that I Graham let him have, my black mare, and at his mothers death or marriage to have the other half of the plantation wherein I now live in quantity and quality, and if he and Myly cannot agree in dividing the land between them it is my wish that they select two or more disinterested and intelligent men to divide it, and when they the said Myly and Richard get full possession of said plantation, that they pay to their brother Jacob Brown one hundred and fifty dollars seventy five dollars each to be paid in twelve months after possession in current Bank notes.

5th - I give and bequeath to my step daughter Mary Weyd twenty five dollars in current bank notes out of the note I hold on John Graham eighteen months after the date.

6th - It is my will after my debts are paid if any and my funeral expenses settled if any money remains due to me that it be paid over to my wife or she may need it in the family to purchase salt, groceries, &c. by her self.

7th - It is my will that my son Richard live and remain with his mother and take care of her and manage for her comfort and benefit.

8th - It is my will and wish that my son Jacob have and enjoy the

284
Jacob Browns Will

be my Executor to this my last will and Testament, and if he can not execute this my will it is my wish that my friend Henry Taylor be executor. In testimony, I have set my hand and affix my seal this nineteenth day of February A. D. 1841.

Jacob Browns (and mark)

John Mitchell
Warrington Mitchell

The foregoing will was proven in open court by the oaths of John Mitchell and Warrington Mitchell at Court 1841 and records

Richard Kellys Will.

I Richard Kelly of the State of Tennessee Washington County being now old and frail in body but yet of perfect sound mind and memory and knowing that it is appointed for all men to die do hereby make this instrument of writing to be my last will and Testament as followeth. First - I leave and bequeath to my beloved wife Elizabeth for her support from the proceeds of my plantation the house I now live with all my household goods and furniture my stock of cattle sheep and hogs with all notes due and owing to me and all other debts of every description to collect for her own use and for her to dole and do with said money and other property as she shall choose to do with the full possession of my plantation during her natural life.

Second - I leave and bequeath to my son Richard Kelly the plantation I now live on with all improvements and appurtenances thereon belonging after the death of my wife Thirdly - I leave to my grandson Joseph Koverston my Rifle Gun powder horn and shot bag.

Fourthly - I leave to my two sons Jonathan Kelly and Richard Kelly my smith tools and waggon to use between them as they formerly have done or divide them equally if they chose to do so.

Fifthly - my daughter Margaret wife of Jacob Miller, my daughter Barbara wife of George Little, my daughter Mary wife of John Ball also my daughter Fathie wife of Jonathan Range and my daughter Elizabeth also my son Joshua Kelly my son William Kelly my son John Kelly and my son Jonathan Kelly all having received from me what I could then spare for them and to make them all equal alike as near as I could with all my children, I now give and bequeath to them the several sums they have here to see receive.

Lastly - I nominate and appoint my son Jonathan Kelly Executor of this my last will and Testament, without giving security, according to the will, laws and bequest in me made and