 named therein were also qualified according to law, &c. &c.

John W. Brown's Will

I, John W. Brown, considering the uncertainty of this mortal life and being of sound mind and memory, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say, First I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Margaret, two hundred acres of land including the house, buildings and spring, extending up to the Snapp Ferry road, to have during her life or widowhood at her death the said two hundred acres of land are to be sold and equally divided between my three daughters viz. Mandy, Mary Ann Elizabeth, Sary, Martha White.

John W. Brown's Will Continued.
 Mary Jane, Clarissa, Liza, Elvira, I also give and bequeath to my beloved wife Margaret all of the house and kitchen en furniture, one mare and colt, three cows and calves all the stock keep any stock of sheep and all of the farming utensils, all of which property and its increase at her death are to be sold and equally divided between my five youngest daughters, viz. Martha White, Mary Jane, Clarissa, Liza, Elvira.
 Secondly, I give and bequeath to my son William one hundred acres of land joining Leveas W. Brown, and beginning at his corner and about 6000 m. m. thence to the Snapp Ferry road thence to the Jonesborough road, sufficiently wide to contain one hundred acres, for a part of which land the said William Brown is to pay to my Executor, one hundred dollars in twelve months from this time, to be used in the discharge of my debts.
 Thirdly, I give and bequeath to my son, George one hundred acres of land lying between the cleared land and the Jonesborough road to him when he becomes twenty one years of age.

kitchen furniture of every kind & description of which I may be possessed except as herein otherwise designated; also the parcel mare and all my part of the sheep as well as those cows she claims; and furthermore that her home during her single state shall be on the premises where I now live and that she shall enjoy the same privileges and benefits which she now enjoys and that she shall be kept in as good style while she remains single as her other sisters were during their single state, all of which shall be furnished her as it now is from my homestead.

2nd I bequeath unto my daughter Sarah and John R. Carson her husband five hundred dollars to be paid within four years after my decease. I also bequeath fifty dollars to their daughter Mary Susan to be paid when she is eighteen years old by James Campbell whom I appoint for that purpose.

3rd I bequeath unto my daughter Mary and Moses Carson her husband five hundred dollars one half to be paid within one year and the remaining half within two years after my decease. I also allow her to have one bed and bedding. I also bequeath fifty dollars to their son Hugh Campbell Carson to be paid when he is twenty one years old by James Campbell whom I appoint for that purpose.

4th I bequeath unto my daughter Margaret and Edward R. Carson her husband four hundred dollars to be paid within four years after my decease or sooner at the option of my Executor.

I also bequeath one hundred dollars to their son Andrew Carson to be paid when he is twenty one years old and fifty dollars to their daughter Susannah to be paid when she is eighteen years old by James Campbell whom I appoint for that purpose.

5th I bequeath unto my daughter Grandson John Smith Haws son of my daughter Nancy one hundred and fifty dollars to be put on interest when he is fifteen years old, so that it will amount to two hundred dollars when he is twenty one years old, and then for the full amount to be paid over to him by James Campbell or his assigns whom I appoint his guardian for that purpose.

6th I bequeath unto my son James Carson
