James McHutchie of Washington County, Pennsylvania, calling to mind the uncertainty of life and the necessity of making his will now, for those who know how difficult it is to do so with me, do make the following disposition of my worldly possessions. I wish my beloved wife to remain with our children to some convenient place as far as my Father as may be in sooon as the crop is in the ground can be disposed of for its value in the duration of life for the support of her & the children or herself for a crop equally valuable in a suitable place. The rest of the land and for five dollars due me from Arizona will pay all my debts as one hundred dollars for ten years. My executors to receive & dispose of the earnings at peaceable rate. To the best advantage for the support of my family a debt due me from Peter McLaughlin for which I state his note stands settled in my favor that can be had justice to my family members and Shirley Jackson my executor to compromise with him in any way he can. That Rate but not above 10% interest is sufficient. We unsettling Arizona & with all reasonable care the compensation made for their final settlement agreeable to the law. I wish to see that my Father and Mother should exercise a parental guardianship over my children & that my wife my wife in exercising the necessary control & influence over them - I wish that no further action should be made of my property but that I leave of my goods those affair any property for the support of my wife and children be subject of the executor to the best advantage for the support & education of the children - to make up for the loss of my children & Shirley Jackson my executor of the foregoing sum & interest & it is my wish that the lands I named them in their settling to be used as a legacy to Shirley in case of my further My wish that my Brother Thomas McHutchie do in a larger measure to my widow & to the widow of the deceased child as I have done. The property of I shall do nothing that can give my executors & the widow of the other child as my wish that the other to be used as a trust fund, same as a Shirley give all the power and authority that would have been necessary in both, to the one that may comply with this request & the execution of the will sole & testament. I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal in the year of the 27th day of August 1826
