Andrew Duncan will

My dear & loving wife I am all the time planning to see as she pleases & to live at the Chesapeake. I know her maintenance & the land along with a good labourer are lower in Maine what she shall choose out of Mr. Starks together with her saddle & bridle together with her cow & calf or her share out of the stock. I likewise have the plantations in the hands of Mr. John Adams who is to take the care of the same and to have the care of the young children who are all to labour together and to have their schooling & maintenance of the land before the only three marry at which time each girl shall have out of Mr. Morralls estate her share and land and other things as near as possible to the portion of those of my daughters already married remembering that the house and barn must be repaired out of the stock that now is and all my lawfull debts is paid. Three of my daughters who are married have got their portions already what I allowed to them and I allow them no part of my estate which is remaining. I likewise will my land should be divided equally amongst the boys except my son Samuel what he has already got is to be deducted out of his part of the land.
