

Katharine Rubble's Will.

whence Elizabeth Kaphugen his deceased daughter the first daughter, have his portion of my clothing and his children to have his portion of all monies which may come into the hands of my executor from my property and legacy also mentioned equally divide among them
And whereas my daughter Barbara Kaphugen also is dead the first daughter live at a great distance, that they are to have no part of my wearing clothes, but his children are to share equally in the monies that may come into the hands of my executor as the proper portion that would have fallen to her my said daughter Signed and acknowledged by me the date before written.

John L. Harris
Witness Scott

Katharine Rubble (Dead)
marks

Barth Bartlett The foregoing will was proven in open court and Recorded

Jacob Coapps Will.

On the name of Charles Coapps
and that if I am never being weak and poor weak, but of sound mind and memory, do make and constitute this my last will and testament in manner hereinafter as follows:-

1st. I will my soul unto the Lord from whence it came and my body to be decently buried. And I will and bequeath that all my just debts be paid out of my property or estate. And I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary that she live on the home place during her natural life and to have the whole control of my movable property during her natural life, and that she shall have the rent of all my lands the third part for her support given to her yearly. 2nd. I will and bequeath unto my beloved children George Coapps Elizabeth Coapps, Peter Coapps, Silas Coapps, Andrew Coapps, Margaret Coapps, John Coapps, Katharine Coapps all to be made equal out of my property and lands, with those which have got a part that is now married. 3rd. I will and bequeath that my three sons Peter Coapps Andrew Coapps and John Coapps that they shall have up my lands at my wife's death, and that Peter Coapps is to have the place of plantation where John Coapps now lives on except that place on the meeting house a line is to be run from the road hence

Jacob Coapps Will.

on the line between me and Michael Coapps line beginning up at the upper corner of the site above the meeting house or west corner and is to run a straight line with the crop fence as it now stands and to continue to course across the branch and to the top of the hill till it meets the back line, and all that part which lies this side of the crop fence or next to home place is to belong to the home place, the other part above the crop fence is to belong to Peter.
4th. I will and bequeath that Andrew Coapps the place or plantation which Andrew Coapps now lives on or all the part north of the big road leading from John Walters and that part lying on the south side of the road is to belong to the home place, the other to Andrew.
5th. I will and bequeath to John Coapps the home plantation or place including the two pieces that will come off the other two tracts for his part.

6th. I will and bequeath that George Coapps may not have any of my lands, but that he shall have the amount of eight hundred and fifty dollars and fifty six and a fourth parts of the estate which I have paid for George towards the Bear man place, it shall be for his part of same in lieu of it.

7th. I will and bequeath to my four daughters the balance of property that will be left, so far as it may go towards their parts, and that each one of the boys part of land or places shall be valued according to quality and improvement by two good men, and that my sons shall refund to my daughters so much out of their lands as to make them all on equality or be that amount.

8th. I gave to George when married one horse worth sixty dollars, 1 saddle $20, one cow $10, one pair of gears and some sheep worth $5 one year 1st. I gave to Elizabeth one cow $10 1 saddle $20 one bureau $2 dollars, and that I appoint George Coapps and Howard Rubble executors of this my last will and testament and they make void all other wills and testaments made by me and establish this will and testament since declared and published in the presence of us this 29th day of October 1842

John Coapps
Peter Coapps

Jacob Coapps (Dead)
marks

The foregoing will was proven in open court and Recorded