

159

Martha Cunningham Will

I also hereby constitute and appoint my son Samuel Cunningham Executor of this my last will & Testament and that no security be required of him. I hereby revoke and disannul all former wills by me made declaring this only to be my last will & Testament. Signed, acknowledged and sealed by the Testator to be her last will and Testament in the presence of those who in her presence have subscribed and sworn as Witnesses thereto, the date above written.

Nathan Stephenson

Susan Meas

Martha Cunningham (deceased) her last will was proven in open court by the oaths of Nathan Stephenson and Susan Meas the subscribing Witnesses thereto at April Session 1824 and recorded. Samuel Cunningham qualified as Executor to the said.

Nathan Nelson's Will

In the Name of God Amen

I Nathan Nelson of Washington State of Tennessee being Very sick & weak in body but of a perfect mind & memory & thinking to be to God for the same calling into mind the Mortality of my body & knowing that it is appointed for all Men Once to die I give & bequeath this my last will & Testament that is to say, firstly and first of all I give & bequeath my love into the hands of Almighty God that give it and my body I commend to the earth to be buried in a decent Christian like manner at the discretion of my executor. Nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God and as touching such worldly estates wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me with in this life I give devise & dispose of in the following manner and from first whereof My son John Nelson has received three hundred dollars and my wife is that he receive no more until the rest of the heirs receive their part as well as hereafter mentioned in the residue of my last will & Testament and further My son Isaac Nelson is to have three hundred dollars and to have the will until he youngest heir comes of age by giving one fourth of the income of the same for the support of the younger children and to keep the will in good repair and also he is to have that part of the money that pays over the branch that the will and also four acres of ground adjoining the will, which property he is to hold until the youngest heir comes of age and no longer also My daughter Rachel Deakers wife of Charles Deakers she has received eighty one dollars there is another dollar is yet coming to her to be paid out of the estate and further she is to have an equal share with the rest of the heirs as well as her other mentioned and further my will is that my daughter Sarah shall have one hundred dollars at that amount in good property as she and the executor can agree and then to have no more until the rest of my female heirs comes of age and made equal to one hundred dollars each and then if a balance shall remain provision will hereafter be made & further Nathan Nelson son of John Nelson & James Nelson my sons that in and under and by the

160

Nathan Nelson's Will

Under my daughters each of these five last named children is to receive the sum of one hundred dollars as they come of age except Nathaniel to an equal share of the balance of the estate that may remain and then at the passage of time my wife is that my heirs both male & female shall have an equal share of the balance of the estate that remain & further my will is that all my movable property be sold agreeable to law except the beds & furniture which I bequeath to my daughters Mary Hannah Phoebe and Ruth and the money arise my from the sale of the above for party is to be put to interest until the youngest child comes of age and further my will is that the plantation be rented to the best advantage and the rent of the same be put to the best advantage for the benefit of the heirs until they may all come of age and then my wife is that the plantation be sold to the best advantage and then all the money due to the estate shall be equally divided amongst the heirs both male & female and as a further confirmation of my last will & Testament I do declare and approve as my executor James Deakers John Nelson and Isaac Nelson my sons with this further my further request that the care of my orphan children be taken yet incapable of taking care of themselves. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and signed my last will this twenty fourth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty four

Nathan Nelson (deceased)

Test William Smith the foregoing will was proven in court by the oaths of James Deakers, John Nelson, Isaac Nelson & the affirmations of William Smith the said Taylor & Deakers witnesses thereto at July Session 1824 & recorded. James Deakers John Nelson & Isaac Nelson qualified as executors of the foregoing will.

Rebecca Charleston Will

In the Name of God Amen

I Rebecca Charleston last of the County of Washington & State of Tennessee being of sound mind & memory knowing that death is the lot of all the human race & thinking that my time on earth will shortly end I hereby make this my last will & Testament in manner & form following to wit: it is my will that at my decease my body be buried in a decent Christian manner and that all my last debts & funeral expenses be paid out of my estate before there is any division of the same. It is also my will that my two negro slaves Mary & David be sold at the discretion of my executor and that the money arising from their sale be divided in equal portions among my three daughters Rebecca Charleston John Charleston & Thomas Charleston. I also will & bequeath to my son Thomas Charleston the first and second volume of my large Bible with illustrations. It is also my will that all the bills that may belong to my estate at my decease be paid at the discretion of my executor and the money arising from the sale go to the use & benefit of my daughter Margaret Mathis in the manner herein after directed. I also give & bequeath to my daughter Mary Sniff the third volume of my large Bible with illustrations. I also will & bequeath to my two dear daughters Margaret Mathis & Mary Sniff all my wearing apparel all my household & kitchen furniture of every description with all the money that may belong to my estate on that in any way be due to the same at my decease or that may be made from the sale of any of the personal property belonging to my estate which is now by this will bequeathed which shall remain

Abigail Charltony w. w.

Reborea ^{the} $\times$ Chalcidtor (Sensu) _{Mark}

Roseannah Stephenson Will

I, Hannah A. Danvers formerly Hannah Dancom of the County of Washington of said Mass and Manery, being asked that it is apparent for to publish and declare this My last will & Testament, that it is to say with comes with My first husband decess'd the 17th July 1776. I give & bequest Inventory Consistent with the above named John Dancom will I will that the husband is now in possession of of the said John Dancom all the real wherin South Dancom Parva of River Dancom and River Dancom of Joseph Dancom last which is brother to the said John Dancom the father, descendant heirs of the said John Dancom. Second I give believe formerly, Mary Dancom a daughter of Christ Dancom who named John Dancom. I will that the Mary have all my personal the above named John Dancom that is to say her Negro Man and her four sons namely Rob Harry Lion & Eph & also a waken And lastly I do appoint my friend Lewis Marvin my last will and testament to and with the above named will and seal this 15th March 1825

Rosannah ^{her} x Stevenson ^{made}

John English & Joseph Branch. The foregoing will was proven in court by the oath of William Grimsby & John English two of the Subscribers thereof taken at July Session 1825 & Recorded James Wilson qualified as exantor to the foregoing will.

Adam Wattenberger Will.

I Adam Wallenberg do of the County of Washington and State of Tennessee being of advanced age, possessing a sound mind, calling to mind my Morbidity, do make and ordain this my last will and Testament, wishing all former Wills and Testaments as follows to be void and that my worldly property after defraying the expenses of a decent and Christian funeral of my body and payment of all my just debts be distributed as follows. In witness whereof I my dearly beloved wife Elizabeth Wallenberg all my household and kitchen furniture, Bed and furniture to be for her use and all my farming utensils, until my youngest child comes of age. It is my will to have all my stock of horses, cows hogs and sheep and all other perishable property for the use of my wife to remain the family until the youngest child comes of age and as my children come to age. Each one of them hereafter mentioned shall have a horse with between fifty and sixty Dollars and a common saddle and bridle as soon as my son can have horses saddled and bridled. With the amount above mentioned that William Wallenberg, Adam Wallenberg's Son, John Wallenberg and Peter Wallenberg do it is my wish that these three mentioned shall have a horse saddle and bridle at the same prices as the sons say. Solomon, Michael, Frederick, George, Samuel Wallenbergs do as it is my wish that my daughter Elizabeth Wallenberg and Sally Wallenberg as they arrive at the age of eighteen years to have each of them a saddle with twenty Dollars and each of them two cows and each of them fifty Dollars and money otherwise and each a bed and furniture and a driving wheel. And it is my will that my son Solomon Wallenberg on the account of being infirm, to have one thousand dollars out of the list money that is collected to be applied for his education and this is to be taken from an equal share with the rest of the Legates and it is my wish that four Boys, to wit, Michael, Frederick, George & Samuel, Wallenberg, be sent to school to learn to read and understand the Rule of Three and it is my wish that my two Daughters Elizabeth & Sarah be sent to school to learn to read and write and for the above mentioned four Boys and two Girls for their education to be paid out of my estate. And if my wife Elizabeth should depart this life before my youngest child comes of age all my property both Real and Personal shall be sold at public sale and as my son Peter Wallenberg learns the Blacksmith trade, there is to be and thousand dollars deducted out of his share of his legacy and if my wife should live until my youngest child comes to be of age, she shall have my cotton cupboard and furniture, Clock, seven, one Barrel, two milk Cows, one mare and saddle and bridle, one Bed and furniture, one egg, one butter and as much household and kitchen furniture as may be necessary to keep my house and for her dearest all to be divided and equally divided among the Legates. All the money that I own from the plantation that I own to Johnathan, and what is not due as soon as can be collected and the debt owing the balance to be divided among the Legates, those of age to have their part then and those not of age, the money to be put to interest until they arrive at age. All other notes,